

The components of transformational leadership

Transformational leadership can change people and social systems. How?

Inspirational motivation

The leader articulates a vision and inspires and motivates followers.

Intellectual Stimulation

The leader is committed to change and asks his/her staff for ideas.

Idealised Influence

The transformational leader inspires respect and trust through high ethical standards.

Individualised consideration

The leader takes into account the needs and concerns of his followers.

