

Scams on the Internet

...Don't fall for it!

The scams of a lifetime are on the Internet today ...

False job offers via email

Donations through fraudulent websites

Online sale of products that do not exist

Stay alert and avoid falling into them:

If you are offered prizes or bargains in exchange for providing certain personal information (passwords, bank details ...) do not provide it.

Be suspicious of offers too good to be true accessed through a link.

Search the Internet for other users' opinions on the offer, web ...

If you are going to buy a product online, make sure it is a trusted website and choose a safe means of payment.
