

EUROPEAN GREEN CAPITALS

The European Commission created the European Green Capital Award in 2010 to recognise the important role of different cities and local authorities in the protection of the environment, as well as their high degree of commitment to sustainable progress.

Source: European Green Capital Initiative (European Commission).