

“Electricity for All” programme

From 2014 to date, we have contributed to providing access to electricity for 13,800,000 people, in emerging and developing countries.

The goal is to bring electricity to 16,000,000 people by 2030.

