Once the annual meeting schedule of the Board of Directors has been approved, the chair and the secretary of the Committee shall prepare a proposed annual schedule for the meetings of the Committee during the first month of the financial year, ensuring that the number of meetings is not less than three and does not exceed seven per year and that they are held on days prior to the meetings of the Board of Directors.
2. Preparation of the proposed schedule must consider the time to be devoted to the various duties of the Committee and must take into account the meeting schedule of the Board of Directors and the date for holding the General Shareholders' Meeting, in order to prepare any reports or proposals to be submitted regarding the matters to be dealt with, as well as the report on the activities of the Committee referred to in article 22 below.
3. The proposed schedule shall include the tentative agendas and any appearances that may be deemed necessary. 5. On an exceptional basis, based on the circumstances in each case, the chair of the Committee may authorise the attendance at the meeting of one or more members by using remote connection systems that permit the recognition and identification thereof, permanent communication with the place where the meeting is held, and their participation therein and the casting of votes, all in real time. Members connected remotely shall be deemed for all purposes to have attended the meeting of the Committee.

The secretary of the Board of Directors shall evaluate the suitability of the appearances requested based on the matters to be discussed, the powers of the Committee, the identity of the person whose attendance is requested and the meeting schedules of the corporate decision-making bodies from time to time in effect.
3. Persons who are not members of the Committee may not attend meetings thereof when the matters dealt with are outside the scope of the powers or duties of such persons.
4. The presence of members of management, professionals or other directors, whether executive or not, at meetings of the Committee shall be on an occasional basis and only when required, after an invitation from the chair of the Committee, shall be strictly limited to those items on the agenda for which they are called, and they shall not attend the decision-making portion of the Committee's meetings. The chair may authorise the remote attendance thereof using the communication systems described in article 14.5 above, if he so deems appropriate.
