

Iberdrola to distribute dividends of at least €0.404 per share in July

- Iberdrola will distribute a complementary dividend of at least €0.404 per share to its shareholders in July, charged against 2024 earnings. This follows the terms of the new edition of the “Iberdrola Retribución Flexible” scheme, as communicated today by the company to Spain’s National Securities Market Commission (CNMV)
- This amount is in addition to the gross €0.231 per share already paid last January as an interim dividend
- The total shareholder remuneration charged against 2024 results stands at €0.635 gross per share, representing a 15% increase compared to the previous year
- What’s more, investors also received €0.005 per share as an engagement dividend, as the quorum at the General Shareholders’ Meeting exceeded 70%
- Iberdrola has fulfilled ahead of schedule its commitment to set a dividend of between €0.61 and €0.66 per share by 2026.
- Iberdrola shareholders will receive one allocation right for each share they hold
- Investors will have three options: receive their complementary dividend payment in cash, of at least €0.404 gross per share; sell their rights on the market; or receive new fully paid-up shares in the group free of charge. These options are not mutually exclusive, meaning shareholders may choose any one of the alternatives or combine them as they prefer.
