1. Shareholders representing at least 3% of the share capital may, on the terms provided for by law and the Governance and Sustainability System:
 - (a) request the publication of a supplement to the call to the General Meeting, including one or more items on the agenda of the call to meeting, accompanied by the rationale therefor or, if applicable, by a well-founded proposed resolution; or
 - (b) submit well-founded proposed resolutions on matters that are already included or must be included in the agenda of the call to meeting.
2. Such rights must be exercised by duly authenticated notice addressed to the attention of the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors of the Company, which notice must be received at the registered office within five calendar days of the publication of the announcement of the call to meeting (i.e. until 25 March 2026, inclusive), on the terms provided for by law and the Governance and Sustainability System.

Article 6. Proxy and absentee voting cards

1. For purposes of the provisions of these Rules, “cards” shall be deemed:
 - (a) the proxy and absentee voting card or form issued or used by the financial intermediary or management institutions or depositaries of the shares mentioned in Article 15 below;

 - (c) a validation certificate issued by a financial intermediary or management institution or depositary of the shares; and
 - (d) any other equivalent evidence or document that the Company considers to be sufficiently valid for such purpose, provided there are no reasonable doubts regarding the identity of the shareholder.
2. Financial intermediary or management institutions or depositaries of the shares shall be responsible for issuing the cards and making them available to shareholders that are their customers in the manner provided for in the respective agreements, to inform them of the call to the General Meeting and give them the opportunity to participate, without prejudice to the Company's ability to send proxy and absentee voting cards directly to the shareholders and to make available to them the means of authentication and participation channels provided for in these Rules.
3. The Company may send absentee voting cards to the ultimate beneficial owners of shares in the Company, provided that the intermediaries grant them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish “Companies Act” and provide the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting.

4. The Board of Directors has approved the form of proxy and absentee voting card that is published on the corporate website, mandating the Finance, Control and Corporate Development Division to give notice thereof to the financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries of the Company's shares, in order for the cards to be uniform and include a barcode or other system that allows for them to be read electronically or remotely to facilitate the computerised calculation of the shares present in person and by proxy at the General Meeting.
5. In order to encourage remote participation, in line with the provisions of the "Ethical and Basic Principles of Governance and Sustainability of the Iberdrola Group" and of the Company's "Innovation Policy", a password and QR code have been included in the proxy and absentee voting cards as well as in the absentee voting cards referred to in Section 3 above sent by the Company, so that the shareholders and the ultimate beneficial owners, respectively, can authenticate themselves on the telephone channel or on the corporate website, as set forth in Articles 12.8 and 13.4 below.
6. If the card is not received or is lost, a shareholder can grant a proxy, cast an absentee vote or attend the General Meeting by authenticating their status by other means in accordance with the provisions of Articles 10, 12 and 13 of these Rules. However, shareholders who do not have a card and want to receive one may contact the Company or their depositary to ask that a new card be issued to them, or download a card issued by the Company through the software application on the corporate website. To access said software application, shareholders must verify their identity using any of the formulas provided for in Article 13 below. Cards shall be generated immediately with the number of shares appearing in the name of the shareholder in the files of the Company, according to the information provided by IBERCLEAR, including co-owned shares. If the party requesting the card is registered in the book-entry register as the legal representative of one or more shareholders (e.g. minors), the card shall be generated indicating the total number of shares in the name of the legal representative and of the shareholders represented, including co-owned shares.

In the event that the ultimate beneficial owners of the Company's shares do not receive or have lost the absentee voting card, they may cast an absentee vote or attend the General Meeting by proving their status through other means in accordance with the provisions of Articles 10, 12 and 13 of these Rules, provided that the intermediaries grant them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the "Companies Act" and provide the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting.

The ultimate beneficial owners of the Company's shares who do not have the absentee voting card and wish to receive it may contact the Company, provided that the intermediaries grant them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the "Companies Act" and provide the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting.

7. The card shall be considered valid provided the shareholder's given name and surnames, or company name, match those recorded in the registers of IBERCLEAR, even if the postal address of the shareholder that appears on the card is not up to date. In the event of discrepancies between the number of shares stated on the card and the figure registered with IBERCLEAR, the procedure set out in Article 18 below shall apply.
8. Shareholders who wish to change their personal data on the card should contact their depositary, given that the depositary provides the information included on the cards to the corresponding book-entry registry.
9. It is the sole responsibility of each shareholder and any proxy representative thereof to make diligent use of the proxy and absentee voting card and to maintain due custody of their electronic signature, passwords, QR code and all other data included in said card. In particular, a shareholder should not disclose the personal data included in the proxy and absentee voting card other than to the person they have appointed as proxy representative. The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused thereto arising from fraudulent use of the proxy and absentee voting card by the shareholder or by the proxy representative.

It is also the sole responsibility of each ultimate beneficial owner with an absentee voting card to make diligent use of the aforementioned card and to maintain due custody of their electronic signature, passwords, QR code and all other data included in said card. In particular, they should not disclose the personal data included in the absentee voting card. The Company shall not be liable for any damages that may be caused thereto arising from fraudulent use of the absentee voting card by the ultimate beneficial owner.

10. The use of the proxy and absentee voting card by anyone who is not a shareholder or a person authorised thereby or for a purpose other than as provided in these Rules is prohibited.

The use of the absentee voting card by anyone who is not the ultimate beneficial owner or for a purpose other than as provided in these Rules is also prohibited.

11. The shareholder or proxy representative shall immediately notify the Company through the Shareholder's Office (postal address: Plaza Euskadi, número 5, 48009 Bilbao, and e-mail address: accionistas@iberdrola.com) of any fact or circumstance that might entail an improper use of the proxy and absentee voting card (including robbery, theft, misplacement or unauthorised access to the data contained therein) in order for the Company to be able to cancel it.

The ultimate beneficial owner of the Company's shares with an absentee voting card shall also immediately notify the Company through the channels indicated in the preceding paragraph of any fact or circumstance that might entail an improper use of the absentee voting card (including robbery, theft, misplacement or unauthorised access to the data contained therein) in order for the Company to be able to cancel it.

12. The Company reserves the right to take all available legal action in the defence of its interests and those of its shareholders if it detects the fraudulent use of the proxy and absentee voting cards.

Article 7. Right to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Shareholders who have at least one share registered in their name in the respective book-entry register on 22 May 2026 (whether the General Meeting is held on first call, as expected, or on second call) may attend the General Meeting and take part in the deliberations thereat, as well as grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote.
2. Shareholders may exercise the right to attend personally or through proxy representation by another person, whether or not such person is a shareholder, upon the terms set forth in Article 8 below.
3. Shareholders and their proxy representatives may attend the General Meeting in person or by remote means as provided in Article 10 below.
4. Alternatively, shareholders and their proxy representatives may cast an absentee vote prior to the General Meeting within the period and through the participation channels provided for in Article 12 below, without having to attend in person or remotely.
5. The members of the presiding committee (mesa) of the General Meeting and the notary may attend the meeting in person or remotely.

Article 8. Shareholders' right to proxy representation

1. All shareholders having the right to attend may be represented at the General Meeting through any other person of legal age, whether or not a shareholder, by giving a proxy using one of the methods provided for by law, the Governance and Sustainability System and these Rules.
2. Shareholders may authorise or provide for the appointment of a substitute proxy in the event of absence of the first proxy representative or in cases in which the proxy representative is affected by a conflict of interest, and may also authorise the proxy representative to do so with the same requirements for proxy-granting provided for by law, by the Governance and Sustainability System and by these Rules.

3. Any proxy that does not contain an identification with a statement of the name of the proxy representative, in which there is no statement allowing for the identity of the proxy representative to be determined or in which the person to which the proxy is given does not clearly appear, shall be deemed granted to the chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of Article 19.5 below, and the provisions of Section 9 below shall apply regarding the scope of the proxy and conflicts of interest with respect to the proxy representative, as applicable.
4. If the proxy is granted or deemed to have been granted in accordance with the Governance and Sustainability System and these Rules to a director, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors or a member of the Company's senior management, notice of the delegation of proxy to the proxy representative shall be deemed to have been given through receipt by the Company of such proxy.
5. It shall not be necessary for the directors, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors or the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors or the members of senior management of the Company to provide individualised evidence of their acceptance of each of the proxies they receive, since they will have previously stated their personal decision to accept and exercise all proxies granted to them individually in the absence of grounds for abstention or a conflict of interest.
6. Shareholders who give their proxy to a third party other than the directors, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors or the members of senior management of the Company and inform the Company of the remote proxy by means of any of the alternatives set forth in Article 12.3 below must ensure that the proxy representative accepts the proxy and is aware of the voting instructions. The proxy representative shall be the only party responsible for following such instructions, for which purpose the proxy representative must take the actions required, including, when appropriate, expressly stating the direction of their vote to the notary.
7. Regardless of the manner used by the shareholder to notify the Company of the proxy granted, the proxy representative desiring to attend the General Meeting must authenticate themselves as such and verify their identity and their status as proxy representative in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 below. The proxy representative must also authenticate his or her identity on the day of the General Meeting upon entering the registered office or accessing the software application as provided in Articles 10 and 13 below.
8. If the proxy representative does not attend the General Meeting, or attends as a shareholder or as proxy representative of another shareholder, without expressly stating that they are exercising another proxy granted thereto:

- (a) If the proxy is granted to a person other than the directors, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors or the members of senior management of the Company, it shall be deemed that the representative does not agree to exercise such proxy, which shall therefore be cancelled.
 - (b) If it is a proxy granted by name to any of the directors (other than the chairman of the Board of Directors), the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors or the members of senior management of the Company, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall automatically be deemed to have been appointed as proxy in the alternative.
9. In all cases in which a proxy is deemed to have been granted to the chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with these Rules and the chairman does not attend the General Meeting, the proxy shall be deemed to have been granted to whoever acts as secretary for the General Meeting pursuant to the rules established in the "Regulations for the General Shareholders' Meeting".
 10. The proxy representative must vote on the proposed resolutions submitted to the shareholders at the General Meeting following the instructions given thereto by the shareholder.
 11. If the shareholder granting the proxy does not provide otherwise, the shareholder shall be deemed to have specifically instructed the proxy representative to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors in connection with the items included in the agenda of the call to meeting.

Article 9. Scope of proxy representation and conflicts of interest affecting the proxy representative

1. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the shareholder, a proxy relates to all items included on the agenda of the call to meeting, and also covers those permitted by law to be dealt with by the shareholders at the General Meeting even if not included on the agenda.
2. In the event that a proxy representative is affected by a conflict of interest in connection with any item on the agenda, the proxy representative must inform the shareholder of such circumstance in detail prior to the proxy representative's appointment. The proxy representative may only cast a vote in connection with the items with respect to which the conflict exists if the proxy representative has received specific voting instructions from the shareholder.
3. For these purposes, it is stated for the record that the directors acting as proxy representatives may have a conflict of interest in respect of items 11 (consultative vote on the "Annual Report on Remuneration of Directors and Officers 2025"), 12 (2026-2028 "Transformational LTIP", aimed at professionals across the companies of the Iberdrola Group linked to the Company's performance during the 2026–2028 period, to be paid on a deferred basis in instalments through the delivery of shares), 13 (remuneration policy) and 14 to 18 (ratifications and re-elections of directors) on the agenda. In addition, there shall be a conflict of interest in the event that matters are submitted at the General Meeting that are not included in the agenda of the call to meeting and that refer to the removal of or filing of a derivative action (acción social de responsabilidad) against the proxy representative, if such proxy representative is in turn a director of the Company.

4. If the conflict is subsequent to the granting of the proxy and the proxy representative did not warn the shareholder of the possible existence thereof, the proxy representative must promptly notify the shareholder thereof. In such case, the proxy representative shall only vote in connection with such items if the proxy representative has received specific new voting instructions.
5. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the shareholder, if the proxy representative is affected by a conflict of interest and has no specific voting instructions, or if the proxy representative has them but it is considered preferable that the proxy representative not exercise the proxy with respect to the items involved in the conflict, the shareholder shall be deemed to have appointed the following persons as proxy representatives for such items, severally and successively, in the following order (in the event that any of them is, in turn, affected by a conflict of interest): first, the chair of the General Meeting, second, the secretary for the General Meeting, and third, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors.

Article 10. Attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Shareholders and their proxy representatives may attend the General Meeting by remote means or in person.
2. To attend the General Meeting remotely, shareholders and their proxy representatives must register on the corporate website in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 below, between 08:00 a.m. and 09:45 a.m. on 29 May 2026 in the event that the General Meeting is held on first call. If, against expectations, it is held on second call, they must register during the same hours on 30 May 2026. In order to expedite their registration as remote attendees on the day of the General Meeting, interested parties may authenticate themselves in advance by pre-registering on the corporate website in accordance with the provisions of Article 13 below.
3. Shareholders and their proxy representatives registered in accordance with Section 2 above may attend the General Meeting remotely from any device with internet access (including mobile phones and tablets). After 09:45 a.m. on the day the General Meeting is held, no new registrations on the software application will be permitted, and therefore, the shareholders or their proxy representatives who have not registered will not be able to attend remotely, although they will still have the ability to follow the proceedings live on the corporate website.

4. Shareholders and their proxy representatives wishing to attend the General Meeting in person at the registered office must pre-register or request pre-registration prior to 09:45 a.m. on the day the meeting is held in order to request a seat reservation through: (i) the permanent channels of the Shareholder's Office, including the free phone number 900 100 019 and the e-mail address accionistas@iberdrola.com; or (ii) the corporate website, using the software application referred to in Article 13 below.

At the time of requesting their pre-registration or at the time of their appointment by a shareholder who is already pre-registered, proxy representatives must send by e-mail (Junta2026@iberdrola.es) or through said software application on the corporate website a copy of the proxy granted in their favour, of the notarised instrument of appointment or duly registered grant of general powers, of the notarised special power of attorney, or of any other documentation that constitutes proof of the validity of their powers pursuant to law.

For the purpose of facilitating the pre-registration of shareholders or their proxy advisors, the Shareholder's Office may, within the framework of its day-to-day activities, assist shareholders and their proxy representatives who wish to reserve their seat to organise pre-registration requests in accordance with Article 10.5 below.

5. Seat reservations will be processed by the Shareholder's Office in the chronological order in which requests are received until the available seating capacity of the room where the meeting will be held is filled. The Shareholder's Office shall confirm the seat assignment to the applicants or, if they are unable to attend in person due to full capacity, shall inform them that they have been pre-registered to attend the meeting remotely unless they have indicated otherwise. It shall also verify that the shareholders to whom a seat has been assigned are entitled to exercise the right of attendance, as well as that their proxy representatives have sufficient powers, rejecting the requests of those who do not meet these requirements.
6. Only shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting and who have a seat or their proxy representatives may attend the meeting in person and thus access the registered office beginning at 09:45 a.m. on the day of the General Meeting or within the time slot that the Company indicates to them when they confirm their attendance in order to organise access, when attendees will be required to show the following documents: (i) proof showing that they have a seat; and (ii) their National Identity Document (DNI) or other generally valid official identification document that the Company deems appropriate in order to verify their identity and their right to attend the General Meeting for purposes of registration thereof on the list of attendees using electronic scanning systems. Proxy representatives must also show the proxy granted in their favour, the notarised instrument of appointment or duly registered grant of general powers, the notarised special power of attorney or any other documentation that constitutes proof of the validity of such powers pursuant to law, a copy of which they were required to provide at the time of requesting the seat reservation.

7. Persons who do not complete their authentication as attendees in person at the registered office prior to the start time of the General Meeting set forth in the announcement of the call to meeting (i.e. prior to 10:30 a.m. on the day the meeting is held) will not be able to access the meeting or exercise the rights corresponding to a shareholder present in person or by proxy, and the provisions of the third paragraph of Section 10 below will apply in this case.
8. Once the General Meeting has commenced, the use by those attending in person of voice amplification instruments, mobile phones, audiovisual recording or transmitting cameras, and in general any instrument that might alter the visibility, sound, lighting or transparency of the proceedings or adversely affect the proper conduct of the meeting will not be allowed.
9. A shareholder or proxy representative who attends the General Meeting and then wishes to leave the meeting, so that the shares with which he or she has registered are not counted in the polling of votes, may do so by using the form provided for such purpose in the software application (in the case of remote attendance) or by leaving a record thereof with the notary who prepares the minutes of the General Meeting (in the case of attendance in person).
10. Shareholders and their proxy representatives who have pre-registered to attend the General Meeting remotely in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 above and who do not ultimately register on the corporate website as attendees at the meeting shall be deemed to cast an absentee vote in accordance with the instructions appearing in the voting form of the software application referred to in Article 13 below, unless they have expressly cancelled their attendance using the application before the meeting commences.

If a shareholder or their proxy representative has been pre-registered by the Company to attend remotely due to full capacity having been reached for in-person attendance and the interested party not having indicated otherwise, if the interested party does not ultimately register on the corporate website as an attendee, it shall be understood that they abstain from voting on all proposals, unless other instructions appear in the aforementioned voting form.

In addition, it shall be deemed that shareholders and their proxy representatives who have been assigned a seat in order to attend the General Meeting in person in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 above and do not attend the meeting shall be deemed to cast an absentee vote and abstain from voting on all proposals, unless they indicate otherwise.

11. It is the sole responsibility of each shareholder, and of any proxy representative thereof, to devote the necessary means and time to pre-register, register and authenticate themselves as an attendee at the General Meeting and to attend the meeting. The Company shall not be liable in this regard for damage that may be occasioned to shareholders or their proxy representatives as a result of breakdowns, overloads, line failures, connection failures or any other contingency of the same or a similar nature beyond the Company's control that prevents the use of the mechanisms described in this article for attending the General Meeting.

12. The Company reserves the right to change, suspend, cancel or restrict the registration mechanisms activated for remote attendees and for seat reservation for in-person attendees, as well as to interrupt, suspend, cancel or restrict their use if deemed advisable or required for technical or security reasons to protect the corporate interest.

Article 11. Absentee voting

1. Shareholders and their proxy representatives may cast an absentee vote prior to the General Meeting in accordance with the provisions of these Rules.
2. Shareholders who cast their votes via the absentee voting system shall be considered present for purposes of the establishment of a quorum for the General Meeting.
3. Unless expressly stated otherwise by the shareholder or their proxy representative, absentee votes shall be deemed to refer to all the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Meeting and to be in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors.
4. As regards resolutions relating to items not included on the agenda, shareholders casting an absentee vote shall be deemed to have granted a proxy to the chairman of the Board of Directors, and the corresponding rules regarding conflicts of interest, direction of the vote and absence of the proxy representative contained in these Rules shall apply, unless expressly stated otherwise by the shareholder. In this last case, the shares shall be counted as present but abstaining. These same rules shall apply to absentee votes cast by the shareholders' proxy representatives.
5. The provisions of Section 4 above shall also apply in relation to resolutions not proposed by the Board of Directors if in casting the absentee vote, the voting procedure has not allowed the shareholder or their proxy representative to vote in favour of such proposals.
6. When shareholders or their proxy representatives attend the General Meeting, the provisions of the preceding sections of this article shall not apply.
7. The casting of votes through the software application on the corporate website by remote attendees during the General Meeting shall be governed by the provisions of Article 22 below.

Article 12. Common provisions for proxy representation and absentee voting

1. The validity of a proxy is subject to verification by the Company of the represented shareholder's status and number of shares owned thereby, whether through the files provided by IBERCLEAR or through other means that allow the Company to verify the legitimacy and validity of the proxy.

2. The validity of absentee voting by the shareholder or their proxy representative is also subject to verification by the Company of the status of the shareholder or the shareholder granting the proxy, as the case may be, and the number of shares owned thereby, whether through the files provided by IBERCLEAR or through other means that allow the Company to verify the legitimacy and validity of the absentee vote.
3. The Company shall make the following options available for shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting who wish to grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote in connection with the proposed resolutions relating to items included on the agenda of the call to meeting:
 - (a) Internet: by accessing the software application available on the corporate website, where they may authenticate themselves by any of the means provided for in Article 13 below, and where corporate shareholders may also grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote by sending an image of the proxy and absentee voting card as indicated in Article 13.5 below.
 - (b) Instant messenger: by sending an image of their signed card via WhatsApp (to the phone number +34 682 333 782) or via Telegram (to the account Junta Iberdrola, also available at <https://t.me/JuntaIberdrolaBot>).
 - (c) E-mail: by sending an image of their signed card to the e-mail address Junta2026@iberdrola.es.
 - (d) Phone: by calling the free phone of the Shareholder's Office at 900 100 019, through which they can authenticate their identity in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 below.
 - (e) Post: by sending their signed card by post to apartado de correos número 1.113, 48080 Bilbao.
 - (f) Shareholder information desks: by going to any of the locations made available by the Company on the days announced on the corporate website, which will have computer terminals for individual shareholders to be able to access the software application provided for in Article 13 below to grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote by scanning their National Identity Document, and with desks where the shareholders can deliver their proxy and absentee voting cards.

These alternatives made available to the shareholders by the Company shall be deemed to be without prejudice to the ability of those shareholders desiring to grant their proxy or cast their absentee vote to also do so through the institutions with which they have deposited their shares, in order for said institutions to then deliver the instructions received to the Company in accordance with the provisions of Article 15 below.

4. The Company shall also make the alternatives indicated in Section 3 above available to proxy representatives who want to cast their absentee vote in relation to the proposed resolutions regarding the items on the agenda of the call to meeting, including the ultimate beneficial owners of the Company's shares, provided that the intermediaries grant them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish "Companies Act" and provide the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting.
5. The electronic form completed by each shareholder or proxy representative who grants a proxy or casts a vote by electronic means, as the case may be, using the software application referred to in letter (a) of Section 3 above shall be considered an unalterable copy of the card in electronic format. So shall the images of the cards received by the Company through the internet, instant messenger and e-mail channels indicated in letters (a), (b) and (c) of Section 3 above.
6. If the choice is made to grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote by telephone, the conversations of individual shareholders or their proxy representatives with the operators or their answers to the automated system shall be recorded as unique and unalterable sound or computer files, which shall be considered cards.
7. Shareholders who choose to grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote through the internet, as provided in letter (a) of Section 3 of this article, may authenticate their identity in the software application on the corporate website using any of the means provided for in Sections 4 and 6 of Article 13 below. In turn, representatives to whom shareholders have granted their proxy may authenticate themselves in such software application to cast an absentee vote through the internet in the manner provided for in Article 13.7 below.
8. Individual shareholders who choose to grant their proxy or cast an absentee vote by telephone in accordance with the provisions of Section 3(d) of this article must identify themselves stating their national identity document number and the password included below the QR code, if their proxy and absentee voting card contains one, or the number of shares they own (including co-owned shares), which the Company shall verify in real time by comparing the information provided by the shareholder with the information available to it, provided that there are no technical impediments thereto.

On the other hand, the authentication required for proxy representatives to cast absentee votes through the telephone channel will depend on the nature of the proxy representation: (i) representatives to whom shareholders have granted their proxy must previously authenticate themselves in the manner provided for in Article 13.7 below; (ii) legal representatives of shareholders who are natural persons (e.g. minors) registered in the book-entry register must authenticate themselves by stating their National Identity Document (DNI) number and the password included below the QR code, if the proxy and absentee voting card has one, or the total number of shares of the shareholders represented and of any legal representative (including co-owned shares); and (iii) legal representatives of corporate shareholders who have previously authenticated their powers and who are registered with the OLS Shareholder's Club must identify themselves with the tax identification number (CIF) of the entity and the password included under the QR code of the proxy and absentee voting card sent by the Company.

9. If it so deems appropriate to mitigate the risk of identity theft, the Company may send a notice by post or by e-mail to the address of the shareholders appearing in the records of IBERCLEAR or of the Company advising of the remote participation of those shareholders who grant their proxy as well as of those shareholders or proxy representatives who cast their absentee vote using any of the alternatives described in Section 3 of this article.
10. The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the means described in this article to grant proxies and cast absentee votes, or to interrupt, suspend, cancel or restrict the use thereof when advisable or required for technical or security reasons in order to protect the corporate interest.
11. In addition, the Company shall not be liable for damage that may be occasioned to shareholders or their proxy representatives as a result of failures, overloads, fallen lines, connection failures or any other contingency of the same or a similar nature beyond the Company's control that prevents the use of the proxy-granting and absentee voting mechanisms described in this article.
12. To be valid, proxies granted or votes cast via the absentee voting system must be received by the Company before Friday 29 May 2026, the date established for the holding of the General Meeting on first call. If the Meeting is held on second call contrary to expectations, the deadline shall be extended by one day. The foregoing shall in any event be deemed to be without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (g) of Article 14 below.
13. In addition to the other instances provided for in these Rules, a proxy granted and an absentee vote cast may be deprived of effect by: (i) the subsequent granting of a proxy or casting of an absentee vote with respect to the same shares; (ii) the subsequent express revocation by the shareholder, carried out by the same means used to grant the proxy or cast the absentee vote, within the period established in these Rules, or (iii) attendance by the shareholder or their proxy representative at the General Meeting.
14. The Company will send a confirmation of receipt of votes received by electronic means.
15. In order to ensure the exercise of shareholders' rights, the Company must in all cases safeguard the intent and the interest of the shareholder in exercising the shareholder's economic and voting rights in connection with the General Meeting, applying the priority and conflict resolution rules provided in Articles 19 and 20 below.

Article 13. Application on corporate website for participation in the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. The Company has activated a software application for the upcoming General Meeting (the "Participation Portal") that is available on the corporate website from any device with internet access (including mobile phones and tablets), in order to encourage and facilitate the participation of shareholders and their proxy representatives in the meeting.
2. Shareholders may take the following actions through the Participation Portal:

- (d) check the Company's registration and calculation of the votes they have cast from the counting thereof until one month after the holding of the General Meeting.
4. Natural persons can also authenticate themselves in the Participation Portal: (i) using a recognised electronic signature based on an electronic certificate issued for this purpose by the Royal Spanish Mint (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre); (ii) using a recognised electronic signature based on their electronic national identity document (DNI); (iii) by scanning the QR code if their proxy and absentee voting card has one, and presenting their DNI as a form of two-factor authentication; (iv) by opening a personalised link, which the Shareholder's Office may send by instant messenger to the members of the OLS Shareholder's Club, and presenting their DNI as a form of two-factor authentication; or (v) by completing the authentication form, identifying themselves using their DNI together with: (a) the password included below the QR code, if their proxy and absentee voting card has one, or sent by the Shareholder's Office by instant messenger systems to the members of the OLS Shareholder's Club; (b) the passwords from the OLS Shareholder's Club channel, which can be obtained in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 below; or (c) the number of shares that they own (including co-owned shares) and, if applicable, the shareholder's mobile telephone number or other details.

If there are no technical impediments, the Company shall perform a real-time verification of the information provided by the shareholder, comparing it with the information it holds, and, if applicable, it shall send a text message to the mobile phone number provided with a security code in order for the shareholder to be able to log into the application.

The Company may also activate specific authentication mechanisms so that professionals of the Iberdrola Group's companies that are shareholders may access the Participation Portal.

5. Corporate shareholders can also authenticate themselves in the Participation Portal: (i) using a recognised electronic signature based on an electronic certificate issued for this purpose by the Royal Spanish Mint (Fábrica Nacional de Moneda y Timbre); (ii) by scanning the QR code if their proxy and absentee voting card has one, and presenting the National Identity Document (DNI) of the representative who has been authenticated with the Company as a form of two-factor authentication; (iii) by opening a personalised link, which the Shareholder's Office may send by instant messenger to the members of the OLS Shareholder's Club, and presenting the DNI of the representative authenticated with the Company as a form of two-factor authentication; or (iv) by completing the authentication form, identifying themselves using the tax identification code (CIF) of the entity together with: (a) the password included below the QR code, if their proxy and absentee voting card has one, or sent by the Shareholder's Office by instant messenger systems to the members of the OLS Shareholder's Club; or (b) the passwords from the OLS Shareholder's Club channel, which can be obtained in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 below. They can also grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote by sending an image of the proxy and absentee voting card through the Participation Portal.

6. Shareholders can obtain OLS Shareholder's Club passwords by registering for the club via the corporate website. The Company will send the personal passwords by text message to the mobile phone number or to the e-mail address provided by the shareholder, after verifying their identity by comparing the number of shares they hold (including co-owned shares) with the information available to the Company. Shareholders who already have passwords can use them at this upcoming General Meeting.
7. Representatives to whom shareholders grant their proxy can authenticate themselves in the Participation Portal by filling out the available authentication form, in which they must identify themselves as proxy representatives using their national identity document (DNI) and proxy code, which is a numerical code that can be obtained in accordance with the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 below.
8. The proxy code is generated when a shareholder grants their proxy to a person other than the Company's directors using the Participation Portal or the instant messenger, e-mail or telephone channels provided for in Article 12 above. The proxy code is also generated when a proxy representative casts an absentee vote by sending an image of the card through the aforementioned instant messenger or e-mail channels or requests authentication by sending an image of the card through the Participation Portal. The Company shall automatically send such code to the mobile telephone number or to the e-mail address provided by the shareholder or by the proxy representative, who may use it to authenticate themselves in the Participation Portal.
9. Proxy representatives of corporate shareholders who wish to pre-register or register to attend the General Meeting remotely or to reserve a seat to attend in person and who do not have a recognised electronic signature based on an electronic certificate issued for such purpose by the Royal Spanish Mint may provide evidence of their representative authority by sending a scanned copy of the proxy granted in their favour, of the duly registered notarised instrument of appointment or grant of general powers, of the notarised special power of attorney, or any other document that serves as evidence of the validity of such authority under the law, via the Participation Portal. Once the documentation has been validated, the Company shall send a proxy code to the mobile phone number or e-mail address provided.
10. Legal representatives of shareholders who are natural persons (e.g. minors) registered in the book-entry register may authenticate themselves in the Participation Portal using any of the alternatives set out in Section 4 of this article. If they identify themselves by entering the number of shares in the authentication form, they must state the DNI of the legal representative and the total number of shares held by both the shareholders represented and any legal representative (including co-owned shares).

11. All shareholders and proxy representatives participating in the General Meeting can download proof of their voting through the Participation Portal as from the date on which the voting is recorded in the Company's systems and up to one month after the holding of the General Meeting.
12. Use of the Participation Portal signifies full and unconditional acceptance of the terms and conditions established for the use thereof.
13. The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the use of the Participation Portal, or to interrupt, suspend, cancel or restrict the use thereof when advisable or required for technical or security reasons in order to protect the corporate interest.
14. In addition, the Company shall not be liable for damage that may be occasioned to shareholders or their proxy representatives as a result of failures, overloads, fallen lines, connection failures or any other contingency of the same or a similar nature beyond the Company's control that prevents the use of the Participation Portal.

Article 14. Acceptance and calculation of cards or other means verifying attendance, proxy-granting and absentee voting

The executive chairman and the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors of the Company, and the chair of and the secretary for the General Meeting, from the moment a quorum is established, have the broadest powers to verify the identity of the shareholders and their representatives, verify the ownership and status of their rights, and recognise the validity and proceed with the calculation of the cards or any other documents or instruments evidencing attendance, representation by proxy representation or absentee voting. In particular, such persons have the power, on a joint and several basis and with express powers of substitution, to:

- (a) Verify the identity and status of the party submitting or signing, as a shareholder or proxy representative, the card or verifying instrument relating to attendance, proxy representation or absentee voting.
- (b) Ask the shareholder, proxy representative or financial intermediary or management institution or depository to clarify any issues that arise regarding the identity and status of the party submitting or signing the card or any other verifying instruments relating to attendance, proxy representation or absentee voting, especially in instances of exercise of voting rights deriving from financial contracts or instruments or linked to any status that is not one of full, ultimate and effective ownership of the shares.
- (c) Verify the authenticity and integrity of the card or of any verifying instruments relating to attendance, proxy representation or absentee voting.

- (d) Cancel the effectiveness of cards and of any other verifying instruments, and therefore the proxies granted and votes cast using the channels provided for in Article 12 above or received by the Company through any other means, if there are reasonable doubts regarding the identity or status of the shareholder or their proxy representative or regarding the validity and effectiveness of the proxy, any substitution of the proxy, the number of shares or the content or effectiveness of the notice received generally.
- (e) Resolve all issues and incidents that may arise regarding the interpretation and application of the rules regarding attendance, proxies and the absentee vote in order to safeguard the rights of the shareholders in all cases.
- (f) Apply and make decisions regarding the rules of priority, resolution of incidents and presumptions provided for in the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules with regard to attendance, proxy representation, absentee voting and complementary rules.
- (g) Accept proxies and absentee votes contained in the proxy and absentee voting cards and in any other verifying instruments that the Company receives by any remote channel of communication or delivery by hand at the registered office after the end of the validity period established in the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules (and also prior to said period in the case of delivery by hand).

Article 15. Communication of client instructions by financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries

1. The cards as well as shareholders' instructions and any other communications related thereto received by the Company through the financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries mentioned in this article shall be accepted regardless of the means by which they are received (particularly including personal delivery, postal correspondence, fax, swift, e-mail, voting platform or by making them available through a secure website that can only be accessed by using passwords previously provided by the institution to the Company).
2. The institutions may group together the instructions received from the shareholders and send them en bloc to the Company, stating the direction of the vote that must be attributed to all or part of the shares to which such instructions refer. Said information shall be presumed to be truthful and correct. The cards need not be submitted if the institution sends the instructions by means of a duly signed written communication through any of the means provided for in the preceding section.
3. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Company may choose to compare the information provided by the institution with any cards that the institution has submitted thereto. In the event of a discrepancy, the instructions reflected in the cards shall prevail, taking into account the provisions of Article 16 below.

4. The Company shall in no case be liable for damage that may be occasioned to shareholders or their proxy representatives as a result of failures, overloads, fallen lines, connection failures or any other contingency of the same or a similar nature beyond the Company's control that affect or prevent the transmission by the financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries of instructions from their respective customers.
5. If a financial intermediary or management institution or depositary sends to the Company a proxy and absentee voting card or verifying instrument of a shareholder duly identified in the document and bearing the signature, stamp or mechanical impression of the institution, and unless the shareholder expressly indicates otherwise, it shall be deemed that the shareholder has instructed such institution to exercise the proxy or voting right, as applicable, in the direction indicated in such card or instrument evidencing the proxy or vote.
6. The Company works with financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries to implement systems for confirming voting instructions given by the ultimate beneficial owners of the shares, whom the Company advises to contact the entities casting such votes in order to request the confirmation thereof.
7. The Company reserves the right to modify, suspend, cancel or restrict the means for receipt by the Company of shareholder cards, instructions or communications sent by the financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries and provided for in this article, or to interrupt, suspend, cancel or restrict the use thereof when advisable or required for technical or security reasons in order to protect the corporate interest.

Article 16. Rules for interpreting instructions received through financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries

If the communications received by the Company from the financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries referred to in the preceding article pose problems of interpretation with respect to the nature thereof as a proxy or absentee vote, or in the absence of specific, express or clear instructions on the card, it shall be deemed that:

- (a) the shareholder has granted a proxy to the chairman of the Board of Directors;
- (b) the proxy covers proposed resolutions not submitted by the Board of Directors or related to issues not included on the agenda of the call to meeting; and
- (c) the rules concerning direction of the vote and conflicts of interest –including the rules regarding the appointment of a substitute proxy representative– established in the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules apply.

Article 17. Deadline to notify the Company of the instructions of customers of financial intermediary and management institutions and depositaries

To be valid, the cards and instructions that the institutions referred to in Article 15 above send to the Company must be received before Friday 29 May 2026, the date established for holding the General Meeting on first call. If the Meeting is held on second call contrary to expectations, the cards and instructions must be received before 30 May 2026. The foregoing shall in any event be deemed to be without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph (g) of Article 14.

Article 18. Resolution of differences between information available in IBERCLEAR and in the cards

1. If the Company becomes aware from information provided by IBERCLEAR or by other valid means that more Company shares are registered in the name of a shareholder in the respective book-entry register than those shown on the card and associated with the same securities account that the card refers to, the vote or proxy and voting instructions appearing on the card shall be deemed to apply equally with respect thereto in the absence of evidence showing otherwise. This rule shall not apply to cards issued by entities that are holders of shares of the Company in their capacity as global custodians acting on behalf of their end-client investors.
2. If the Company becomes aware, by the same means, that a shareholder has transferred all or part of the shares thereof, the number of shares taken into account for purposes of voting and proxy-granting shall be reduced and the voting instructions set forth on the card shall be adjusted accordingly.

Article 19. Rules of priority in case of proxy-granting and absentee voting through several channels

1. If a shareholder or the shareholder's proxy representative uses more than one of the alternatives that the Company makes available thereto to grant a proxy or cast an absentee vote, as applicable, the instruction occurring later in time shall generally prevail. Specifically, the following order of priority shall apply:
 - (a) If the shareholder grants a proxy and casts an absentee vote, the option exercised later in time shall prevail.
 - (b) If the shareholder grants a proxy using several remote means, the last proxy granted shall prevail.
 - (c) If the shareholder votes using several remote means, the last vote cast shall prevail.
 - (d) If the proxy representative votes using several remote means, the last vote cast shall prevail.

- (e) If a shareholder grants proxies to different persons through cards corresponding to the same securities account or submits to the Company one or more cards granting a proxy and one or more cards casting an absentee vote corresponding to the same shares, the card issued on the later date shall prevail.
- (f) If the shareholder and their proxy representative cast an absentee vote, the vote cast on a later date shall prevail, unless the Company is satisfied that the shareholder voted after the proxy was granted, in which case the proxy shall be deemed revoked and any vote cast by the proxy representative shall be deemed to be null and void.

If the date of granting the proxy or casting the absentee vote cannot be verified, the valid date shall be that of registration of the cards by the Company.

2. By way of exception to the provision above, if there are discrepancies between a card signed directly by a shareholder and another signed by a financial intermediary or management institution or depositary on behalf of said shareholder, and both cards refer to the same shares, the former shall prevail. Likewise, a proxy granted or an absentee vote cast by a shareholder through electronic means or by telephone, and an absentee vote issued by a proxy representative through electronic means, shall prevail over the contents of a card signed by a financial intermediary or management institution or depositary on behalf of the same shareholder or proxy representative except in the cases indicated in Section 1(f) above.
3. If a proxy representative represents several shareholders, the proxy representative may cast votes in different directions based on the instructions given by each shareholder. The Company may require the proxy representative to justify the diversity of instructions.
4. The following rules shall be applied to resolve any questions of interpretation that may arise concerning whether a proxy is granted or an absentee vote cast by means of the card:

- (a) Proxy representation shall be deemed to be granted if:
 - The card is signed and the box for casting an absentee vote provided in the form of card approved by the Company has not been checked.
 - The card is only signed in the proxy section, or in the proxy section and any other section (including the voting section), or outside of the proxy and voting sections, in the case of cards issued by institutions with different spaces for signature in the case of proxies and absentee voting.
 - The identity of a proxy representative is indicated in the space for this purpose on the card (even if the box for casting an absentee vote has been checked or only the voting section has been signed, depending on the type of card).

- Due to an error in the publication or printing of the card, or for any other reason, the text thereof does not allow for a deduction as to whether the shareholder grants a proxy or casts an absentee vote.

(b) A vote shall be deemed an absentee vote if:

- The card is signed and the box for casting an absentee vote provided in the form of card approved by the Company has been checked (unless the identity of a proxy representative has been indicated in the space for this purpose, in which case a proxy shall be deemed to have been granted).
- The card is only signed in the voting section, or in the voting section and any section or place (in any section other than the proxy section), in the case of cards with different spaces for signature in the case of proxies and absentee voting (unless the identity of a proxy representative has been indicated in the space for this purpose, in which case a proxy shall be deemed to have been granted).
- The card meets the requirements necessary to be considered a proxy, and also contains the signature of the proxy representative in the voting section, or in the voting section and in any other section or place (including the proxy section).

5. The following rules shall apply to resolve any questions of interpretation that may arise in determining the identity of the proxy representative:

(a) The proxy shall be deemed granted in favour of the chairman of the Board of Directors (applying, where applicable, the provisions of Article 8.9 above regarding the scope of the proxy and conflicts of interest) if:

- An expression is used in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy remotely that does not allow for identification of the proxy representative or does not reveal the identity of the person in favour of whom the proxy has been granted with complete clarity. Specifically, if the person appointed as proxy representative is not a director of the Company, the shareholder must specify the national identity document (DNI) or tax identification number (NIF) of the proxy representative in order to state the identity thereof for the record.
- The shareholder themselves is appointed as proxy representative in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy remotely.

- The Board of Directors, one or more of its members, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors or the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors is appointed as proxy representative in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy remotely, without express mention of their names.
 - The management of the Company or one or more of the management team is appointed as proxy representative in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy remotely without express mention of their names.
 - The “bank” is appointed as proxy representative or another similar expression is used in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy remotely, unless the provisions of letter (b) below apply.
- (b) The proxy shall be deemed to have been granted to the financial intermediary or management institution or depositary that issued the card if the card indicates the “bank” as proxy representative or contains any other similar expression.
6. The following rules shall be followed to interpret voting instructions:
- (a) A shareholder granting a proxy shall be deemed to give specific instructions to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors if the shareholder does not provide otherwise in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy.
 - (b) A shareholder or proxy representative casting an absentee vote shall be deemed to give specific instructions to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors if the shareholder or proxy representative does not provide otherwise in the card, the Participation Portal or, in the case of the shareholder, the telephone call, to cast the absentee vote.
 - (c) A shareholder granting a proxy shall be deemed to instruct the proxy representative to abstain in the following cases:
 - In connection with proposed resolutions that have not been submitted by the Board of Directors or with issues not included on the agenda of the call to meeting, if the shareholder expressly specifies in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy that in these cases the shareholder does not grant a proxy to the chairman of the Board of Directors;
 - In connection with items included on the agenda in respect of which the proxy representative is affected by a conflict of interest, if the shareholder expressly states in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy that in these cases the shareholder does not authorise the substitution of the proxy.

- (d) In connection with proposed resolutions that have not been submitted by the Board of Directors or with issues not included on the agenda of the call to meeting, it shall be deemed that the shareholder or proxy representative casting an absentee vote abstains if the shareholder or proxy representative expressly specifies in the card, the Participation Portal or, in the case of the shareholder, the telephone call to cast an absentee vote, that in these cases the shareholder does not grant a proxy to the chairman of the Board of Directors.
- (e) It shall only be deemed that the shareholder granting a proxy gives instructions to abstain regarding one or all of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting: (i) if so expressly indicated in the card, the Participation Portal or the telephone call to grant the proxy; or (ii) if there are contradictory instructions on the card in connection with one or more items on the agenda (e.g., because the boxes to vote "for" and "against" are both checked).
- (f) It shall only be deemed that the shareholder or proxy representative casting an absentee vote abstains regarding one or all of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting (i) if so expressly indicated in the card, the Participation Portal or, in the case of the shareholder, the telephone call to cast an absentee vote; (ii) if there are contradictory instructions on the card in connection with one or more items on the agenda (e.g., because the boxes to vote "for" and "against" are both checked); or (iii) in the case of a shareholder pre-registered by the Company to attend the General Meeting remotely pursuant to the provisions of Article 10.10 of these Rules who does not ultimately attend the meeting, cancel their attendance or give other voting instructions.
- (g) If, owing to an error in the publication, printing or transcription of the agenda of the call to meeting on the card, the card omits part of the items on the agenda, the following procedure shall be followed:
 - On cards containing instructions to vote in favour of the proposals of the Board of Directors in connection with all items on the agenda of the call to meeting included in the blank form or instructions, the shareholder shall be deemed to grant a proxy or vote also in favour of the other matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting and not included in the card.
 - On cards containing instructions to vote against the proposals of the Board of Directors relating to all items on the agenda of the call to meeting included in the form, the shareholder shall be deemed to vote against the other matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting and not included in the card.
 - On cards containing instructions to vote against the proposals of the Board of Directors in connection with any of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting included in the form, or abstentions regarding the proposals of the Board of Directors relating to any or all of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting included in the form, the shareholder shall be deemed to abstain regarding the other matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting and not included in the card.

7. Any text inserted by the shareholder or the shareholder's proxy representative outside of the corresponding boxes shall not be taken into account when interpreting the content of the card, and particularly the voting instructions given. By way of exception to the foregoing, for cards with errors in the publication, printing or transcription of the text that prevent the electronic processing and reading thereof by the Company, text inserted by the shareholder shall be taken into account if it can clarify the voting instructions thereof.
8. Under no circumstances shall the text of the messages that the shareholders or their proxy representatives use to send the images of the cards through the instant messenger and e-mail channels provided for in Article 12.3 above be taken into account for interpreting the cards. These images will be processed automatically and will not be linked to the text of the messages that may accompany them when they are sent to the Company. The Company will delete any information other than the images of the cards that may be included in the mailings through the aforementioned channels, including any personal data that is not necessary for the management of the General Shareholders' Meeting and which, therefore, will not be processed.
9. If the card has errors, defects or omissions other than those provided for in the rules set forth in the preceding sections, the Company may or may not accept the card as valid and shall determine the nature of the proxy or vote and the direction of the vote and of the instructions received taking into account all the interpretation standards included in the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules, ensuring protection of the corporate interest and compliance with the principles of legal security and safeguarding of shareholders' rights.
10. As regards proxy-granting and absentee voting through financial intermediary or management institutions or depositaries, the special rules established in Articles 15, 16 and 17 above shall have priority in application.

Article 20. Rules of priority in case of proxy-granting, absentee voting and attendance at the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. If the shareholder or their proxy representative registers to attend the General Meeting (if attending remotely) or authenticates their identity on the day of the General Meeting after obtaining the seat reservation provided for in Article 10.4 above (if attending in person), the shareholder's action shall generally have priority, given that attendance thereof shall be deemed to revoke the proxy previously granted, unless the Company is satisfied that the shareholder granted a proxy after registering to attend the Meeting, in which case the proxy shall not be deemed revoked.

2. The following rules of priority will be applied:
 - (a) If the shareholder grants their proxy and subsequently pre-registers to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person, their attendance shall prevail over the proxy granted, which shall be deemed to be revoked.
 - (b) If the shareholder casts an absentee vote and the shareholder or their proxy representative subsequently pre-registers to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person, the attendance shall prevail over the absentee vote, which shall be deemed to be cancelled.
 - (c) If the shareholder or their proxy representative is pre-registered to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person and the shareholder subsequently grants their proxy, it shall be deemed that the shareholder grants their proxy to attend the General Meeting in favour of the last proxy representative appointed, maintaining the pre-registration initially made for these purposes unless the shareholder or their proxy representative expressly cancels their pre-registration to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person.
 - (d) If the proxy representative is pre-registered to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person and the shareholder subsequently pre-registers or registers to attend, the pre-registration of the proxy representative shall be automatically cancelled and the proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.
 - (e) If the shareholder or their proxy representative is pre-registered to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person and the shareholder or their proxy representative subsequently casts an absentee vote, the attendance shall prevail over the absentee vote, which may not be cast unless the shareholder or their proxy representative expressly cancels their pre-registration to attend the General Meeting remotely or in person.
3. Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding sections, attendance at the General Meeting of a director who has granted proxy representation to another person or cast an absentee vote shall not imply the revocation thereof, unless the director concerned expressly states so and without prejudice to such director acting as proxy representative for other shareholders.
4. If a shareholder holding one or more co-owned securities accounts grants a proxy through the Participation Portal or by telephone, or if such shareholder or their proxy representative casts an absentee vote through said channels, pre-registers or registers to attend remotely or to reserve a seat or attends the General Meeting, if the shareholder or proxy representative does not indicate on the electronic or telephone form or in the request for seat reservation submitted through the Shareholder's Office that it does not cover one or more co-owned securities accounts or one or more positions in which it features as one of the ultimate beneficial owners, it shall be understood that the shareholder:

- (a) grants a proxy, or that the shareholder or proxy representative votes or attends, with all the shares deposited in all the securities accounts that appear both in the name of the shareholder and that of other co-owners (according to the information available to the Company), applying the instructions or the direction of the vote cast by the shareholder or proxy representative; and
- (b) votes or attends, with all of the shares corresponding to the positions in which the shareholder features as one of the ultimate beneficial owners, provided that the intermediaries have granted them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish "Companies Act" and have provided the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting, applying the direction of the vote cast by the shareholder to said shares, and applying the priority rules defined in this Article and in Article 19 above.

5. The rules established in Section 4 above shall also apply to the ultimate beneficial owners of shares in the Company, provided that the intermediaries have granted them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish "Companies Act" and have provided the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting, who cast an absentee vote via the Participation Portal or by telephone, or who pre-register or register to attend remotely or to reserve a seat, or attend the General Meeting.
6. In relation to the provisions of Sections 4 and 5 above:
 - (a) If one of the co-owners has pre-registered or registered to attend the General Meeting physically or remotely, the other co-owners of shares deposited in the securities account may not register to attend the General Meeting unless the pre-registered or registered shareholder (or proxy representative of the shareholder) cancels the registration thereof.
 - (b) If one of the ultimate beneficial owners of a position has pre-registered or registered to attend the General Meeting physically or remotely, the other ultimate beneficial owners of that same position may not register to attend the General Meeting unless the pre-registered or registered ultimate beneficial owner cancels the registration thereof.
 - (c) It shall be assumed that a shareholder choosing to grant their proxy, or a shareholder or ultimate beneficial owner choosing to cast an absentee vote or attend with the shares for which the shareholder appears as co-owner or as one of the ultimate beneficial owners of a position, has been designated by the other co-owners or ultimate beneficial owners, as applicable, to exercise the right of proxy representation, in the case of shareholders, or to exercise the right to vote and attend, in the case of shareholders and ultimate beneficial owners, and such shareholder or ultimate beneficial owner must ensure that they are duly qualified to exercise such rights.

7. Each time a shareholder holding several securities accounts grants a proxy, or when such shareholder or their proxy representative casts an absentee vote (even when using a single card), pre-registers or registers to attend remotely or to reserve a seat or attends the General Meeting, if the shareholder does not indicate on the electronic or telephone form or in the request for seat reservation submitted through the Shareholder's Office that it does not cover the shares included in the proxies granted by financial institutions, it shall be understood that the shareholder:
 - (a) grants the proxy, or that the shareholder or proxy representative casts an absentee vote or attends, with all the shares deposited in all the securities accounts that appear in the name of the shareholder, applying the instructions or the direction of the votes cast by the shareholder or proxy representative to said shares; and
 - (b) if the shareholder is also the ultimate beneficial owner, votes and attends with all of the shares corresponding to positions in which the shareholder features as the ultimate beneficial owner, provided that the intermediaries have granted them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish "Companies Act" and have provided the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting, applying the direction of the vote cast by the shareholder to the latter shares, and applying the priority rules defined in this Article and in Article 19 above.

However, if it is an intermediary that appears as a shareholder in the book-entry register acting on behalf of different investors, it may split the voting instructions of its clients and the Company shall recognise the validity of each of such proxies and votes in accordance with the rules set out in these Rules and may request that the differing instructions be explained.

8. The rules established in Section 7 above shall also apply when an ultimate beneficial owner of shares in the Company casts an absentee vote via the Participation Portal or by telephone, or pre-registers or registers to attend remotely or to reserve a seat, or attends the General Meeting, provided that the intermediaries have granted them their proxy in accordance with the provisions of Section 524.2 of the Spanish "Companies Act" and have provided the corresponding identification data to the Company in order to facilitate their engagement and direct participation in the General Meeting.

Article 21. Presentations by attendees at the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the General Meeting remotely or in person may propose resolutions in those instances allowed by law or request information or clarifications relating to:
 - (a) The matters included in the agenda.
 - (b) The matters that, although not included in the agenda for the meeting, may be dealt with at the General Meeting because it is so allowed by law.
 - (c) The information accessible to the public that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores) since the holding of the last General Meeting, i.e. since 30 May 2025.
 - (d) The reports of the statutory auditor for financial year 2025.
2. Once they have pre-registered to attend in accordance with the provisions of Article 10.2 above, shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the General Meeting remotely may submit requests for information or clarifications or submit proposed resolutions from 24 May 2026 until 08:00 a.m. on the day of the General Meeting. If the shareholder or proxy representative does not register to attend the General Meeting, the presentation or proposed resolution thereof shall be deemed to have not been submitted or made.
3. If they have not already done so during the period indicated in Section 2 above, shareholders or their representatives attending the General Meeting by remote means may state their intention to make a presentation or to submit proposed resolutions during the period for registering as attendees at the General Meeting, i.e. from 08:00 a.m. until 09:45 a.m. on the day of the General Meeting, and must send the text of their presentation or proposed resolution before 10:30 a.m.
4. Requests to make presentations or proposed resolutions submitted by shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the General Meeting in person must be made prior to the commencement of the meeting to the Shareholder's Office (to whoever is indicated for these purposes), which shall be available for this purpose at the registered office beginning at 09:45 a.m. on the day of the General Meeting. They must authenticate their first and last names and, if applicable, the name of the corporate shareholder they represent, as well as the number of shares they own or represent. It is recommended that such requests be submitted as soon as possible to facilitate the preparation of the list of those making presentations.
5. Presentations or proposed resolutions submitted by remote attendees must be made in writing through the Participation Portal within the periods indicated in Sections 2 and 3 above, and may not exceed 5,000 characters. Shareholders and their proxy representatives may also cancel their presentations or resolutions proposed through said Participation Portal until 10:30 a.m. on the day of the General Meeting, but may not change the text of those already submitted.

6. Presentations or resolutions proposed by those attending in person shall take place at the time the chair of the General Meeting declares the presentation period to have commenced and in the order in which they are called by the secretary for the General Meeting. No shareholder or shareholder representative may present without having been given the floor. Shareholders and their proxy representatives must make reasonable use of their right to make a presentation with respect to both the duration thereof, which shall be a maximum of five minutes, without prejudice to the chair's powers to limit or extend such time, and the content thereof and the respect deserved by the proceedings and the other attendees.
7. Shareholders and their proxy representatives may submit presentations or propose resolutions only once, and therefore the same in-person attendee may not present again after their presentation has ended. If they wish their presentation to appear verbatim in the minutes of the meeting, they must expressly so state in the presentation form (if attending remotely) or provide the full text to the Shareholder's Office at the time of accreditation (if attending in person).
8. Presentations made by the shareholders or their proxy representatives may be answered verbally during the General Meeting when appropriate or in writing, by the chair of the General Meeting, by any person designated thereby, or by the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, severally, within seven days following the meeting, and may be published by the Company on the corporate website, together with the replies, after the General Meeting has been held.

Article 22. Voting on proposed resolutions at the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Once the period dedicated to presentations by shareholders or their proxy representatives and for response has ended, the proposed resolutions on the matters included on the agenda of the call to meeting, as well as any proposed resolutions put forward by the shareholders or their proxy representatives and which may properly be admitted for processing and put to a vote in accordance with the law and the Governance and Sustainability System shall be put to a vote.
2. The chair of the General Meeting shall decide, organise and direct the voting procedures and systems, as well as the counting of the votes cast and the announcement of the result, in accordance with the law and the Governance and Sustainability System. In particular, shareholders or their proxy representatives who attend the meeting by remote means may cast their vote through the form enabled in the Participation Portal from the time the General Meeting is quorate until 1:00 p.m. on the day the meeting is held or any point in time indicated by the chair of the General Meeting.

3. If a shareholder has validly exercised either of the rights set forth in Article 5 above (request for a supplement to the call to meeting or presentation of well-founded proposed resolutions), the chair of the General Meeting, making use of the powers vested therein by the “Regulations for the General Shareholders’ Meeting”, shall submit to a vote the new items on the agenda or proposed resolutions after the proposed resolutions submitted by the Board of Directors. In this case, the following rules shall apply in order to determine the direction of the shareholders’ votes on those proposals that conflict with other proposals submitted to the shareholders at the General Meeting:
 - (a) First, absentee votes cast pursuant to the provisions of the “Regulations for the General Shareholders’ Meeting” shall be counted in the direction that is appropriate in accordance with the provisions of the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules, as well as the votes of the members of the presiding committee (mesa), whether in their own name or on behalf of other shareholders.
 - (b) Second, shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the General Meeting and desiring to expressly state the direction of their vote in favour of a specific proposed resolution must state so in the form provided on the corporate website (if attending remotely) or to the notary (if attending in person).

It shall be deemed that the shareholders (or their proxy representatives) voting in favour of a proposed resolution vote against all the others that conflict therewith.
 - (c) Third, shareholders (or their proxy representatives) attending the General Meeting and desiring to vote in blank or to abstain with regard to all proposed resolutions must proceed in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) above.
 - (d) Finally, pursuant to the provisions of letters (a) and (b), those votes corresponding to all shares represented in person or by proxy shall be deemed to be votes in favour of the proposal, after deducting the votes corresponding to the following: (i) shares whose holders or proxy representatives have expressly stated that they vote in favour of another conflicting proposal and who vote in blank or abstain from all of them; and (ii) shares whose holders or proxy representatives have left the meeting prior to the voting on the proposed resolution in question and have provided a record thereof in the form provided on the corporate website (if attending remotely) or to the notary (if attending in person).
4. Shareholders or their proxy representatives attending the General Meeting are entitled to state for the record their vote against, in favour, in blank or their abstention in the form provided on the corporate website (if attending remotely) or to the notary (if attending in person).

5. Votes against or in favour, in blank or abstentions of the members of the presiding committee of the General Meeting or of shareholders who have granted a proxy thereto shall be automatically calculated in accordance with the provisions established in the Governance and Sustainability System and in these Rules or, if applicable, in accordance with the statements that said members make to the secretary for the General Meeting for the latter to deliver to the notary.
6. Without prejudice to the foregoing, in order to expedite the meeting, the chair of the General Meeting may declare proposed resolutions to have been approved or rejected, in whole or in part, as the case may be, if the chair determines at the time of voting that there is a sufficient number of votes to approve or reject all or part of the proposed resolutions, particularly taking into account the absentee votes and the voting instructions contained in the proxies received by the directors, the general secretary and secretary of the Board of Directors, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors and the members of senior management of the Company.
7. The quorum, the outcome of the votes and the resolutions approved shall be included on the corporate website within five days of the end of the General Meeting.

1. Registered holders of American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) representing ordinary shares of the Company shall receive through Citibank a letter informing them of the call to and agenda for the General Meeting, as well as a voting instructions card by means of which they shall be able to exercise their voting rights at the General Meeting.
