“In our company we firmly believe that our differences enrich us”

Ignacio Galán , Iberdrola chairman and member of the European Round Table of Industrialists (ERT), is backing the ERT’s commitment to inclusive growth to confirm the enormous value that a diverse workforce can bring. This commitment is part of a larger campaign called #EmbraceDifference.

“In our company we firmly believe that our differences enrich us. Our employees’ varied life experiences, personalities, training and skills contribute, on a day-to-day basis, to us achieving all of our objectives”, Galán said.

The Iberdrola Group has several corporate policies to prevent discrimination and encourage respect for diversity and inclusive employment , promoting effective equality between men and women in their access to jobs, training, promotions and working conditions. They also support workers with functional diversity.
