Ignacio Galán, recognised with the Civil Guard Silver Cross Order of Merit

Iberdrola chairman, Ignacio Galán, has received today the Civil Guard Silver Cross Order of Merit, during a ceremony presided over by the Minister of the Interior, Fernando Grande-Marlaska, which has taken place in the Plaza Mayor in Salamanca. This distinction is a recognition of the company's close collaboration and constant support for the Civil Guard.

The medal award ceremony, held as the culmination of the week commemorating the Civil Guard's patron saint the Virgin of El Pilar, was attended by the president of the Community of Castilla y León, Juan Vicente Herrera; the mayor of Salamanca, Alfonso Fernández Mañueco; the Secretary of State for Security, Ana Botella, and the general director of the Civil Guard, Félix Vicente Azón.
