

RELEASE

Ignacio Galán, Chairman and CEO of Iberdrola, who was staying in Mexico D.F. at the time of the earthquake, said: “all of us in Iberdrola share with the Mexican people the immense sorrow for the victims of the earthquake that rocked the central part of this country, so dear to us and with which we’ve been deeply associated for several decades now. At Iberdrola, we feel as ours this tragedy being endured by Mexico, our adoptive country. We wish to express our brotherly solidarity with all Mexicans, our employees and their families, and offer the authorities all of our support and unreserved cooperation.”

Cuida del medio ambiente.
Imprime en blanco y negro y sólo si es necesario.