Amendments of the Regulations for the General Shareholders’ Meeting

1. In order to promote and facilitate the informed participation of the shareholders, upon the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting the Board of Directors may make available thereto a Shareholder’s Guide that clearly explains the most significant aspects regarding the operation thereof and the procedures established for the exercise of their rights at the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

2. The Board of Directors may approve rules of implementation that systematise, adapt and specify the provisions of the Corporate Governance System regarding the General Shareholders’ Meeting and the rights of the shareholders related thereto, within the framework of the corporate interest.

3. The Board of Directors shall also entrust to the secretary thereof the preparation and ongoing update of a management framework to coordinate and facilitate the monitoring of all activities necessary for the planning, preparation, call, holding and formalisation of the resolutions at each General Shareholders’ Meeting.

4. Pursuant to the provisions of the Sustainability Policy, the Company shall endeavour to ensure that all actions relating to the organisation of the General Shareholders’ Meeting comply with the best sustainable event management practices.

Amendments of the Regulations for the General Shareholders’ Meeting

1. The shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting shall decide the matters assigned thereto by law, the By-Laws or these Regulations, and in any case regarding the following:

A. With respect to the Board of Directors and the directors:
   a) The appointment, re-election and removal of directors, as well as the ratification of directors designated by interim appointment to fill vacancies.
   b) The approval of the establishment and application of systems for remuneration of the Company’s directors consisting of the delivery of shares or of rights therein or remuneration based on the value of the shares.
   c) Releasing the directors from the prohibitions arising from the duty of loyalty, when authorisation is attributed by law to the shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting, as well as from the obligation not to compete with the Company.
   d) The exercise of derivative liability actions against directors.

B. With respect to the annual accounts and corporate management:

2. Decisions of the shareholders at a General Shareholders’ Meeting bind all shareholders, including shareholders who are absent, vote against, abstain from voting, vote in blank or lack the right to vote, without prejudice to the rights they may have to challenge such resolutions.

2. Decisions of the shareholders at a General Shareholders’ Meeting bind all shareholders, including shareholders who are absent, vote against or in blank, abstain from voting or vote in blank, or lack the right to vote, without prejudice to the rights they may have to challenge such resolutions.

Article 9. Powers

A. With respect to the Board of Directors and the directors:
   a) The appointment, re-election and removal of directors, as well as the ratification of directors designated by interim appointment to fill vacancies.
   b) The approval of the establishment and application of systems for remuneration of the Company’s directors consisting of the delivery of shares or of rights therein or remuneration based on the value of the shares.

e) The transfer to controlled entities of core activities that were previously carried out by the Company itself, while maintaining full control thereof.

f) The acquisition, transfer or contribution of key assets from or to another company.

F. With respect to statutory auditors:

a) The appointment, re-election and removal of the statutory auditors.

b) The exercise of derivative liability actions against the statutory auditors.

G. With respect to the dissolution and liquidation of the Company:

a) The dissolution of the Company.

b) The appointment and removal of the liquidators.

c) The approval of the final liquidating balance sheet.
d) The exercise of derivative liability actions against the liquidators.

e) The approval of transactions having an effect equivalent to liquidation of the Company.

2. The shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting shall also decide any other matter submitted to them by the Board of Directors or by the shareholders in the instances provided by law or that is within their power pursuant to law or the Corporate Governance System.

3. The shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting shall also decide, by way of a consultative vote, on the annual director remuneration report, and may also make a pronouncement on any other reports or proposals submitted by the Board of Directors.

Article 14. Corporate Website

1. The Company shall use its corporate website to promote the informed participation of all shareholders in the General Shareholders’ Meeting and to facilitate the exercise of their rights related thereto.

2. From the date of publication of the announcement of the call to meeting through the date of holding of the General Shareholders’ Meeting in question, the Company shall continuously publish on its corporate website in electronic format and in an organised and environmentally-friendly manner, such information as is required by law or deemed appropriate to facilitate and promote the attendance and participation of the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, including in any case the following:

   a) The announcement of the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Article 15. Requests for Information Prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. From the date of publication of the call to the General Shareholders' Meeting through and including the fifth day prior to the date provided for the first call to meeting, the shareholders may request in writing the information or clarifications that they deem are required or ask written questions that they deem pertinent regarding (i) the matters contained in the agenda for the meeting; (ii) information accessible to the public that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the holding of the last General Shareholders' Meeting; and (iii) the audit report.

2. All such requests for information or questions may be made or asked by delivery of the request to the Company's registered office, or by delivery to the Company via mail or other means of electronic or long-distance data transmission sent to the address specified in the announcement of the call to meeting or, in the absence thereof, to the Office of the Shareholder (Oficina del Accionista). Requests shall be allowed that include the recognised electronic signature of the requesting party, the personal passwords referred to in letter c of article 19.2 below, or that use other mechanisms that the Board of Directors deems sufficient to ensure the authenticity and identity of the shareholder, after an express resolution adopted for such purpose.

3. Regardless of the means used, the request must include the shareholder's first and last names or company name, with evidence of the shares owned, in order for this information to be checked against the list of shareholders and the number of shares in the shareholders' name provided by “Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U.” (IBERCLEAR) for the General Shareholders' Meeting in question. The shareholder shall be responsible for showing delivery of the request to the Company as and when due.
4. The Board of Directors shall be required to provide the information requested pursuant to the two preceding paragraphs in the form and within the periods set forth in the law, in the By-Laws and in these Regulations, except in cases in which it is unnecessary for the protection of shareholder rights, there are objective reasons to believe that it might be used for ultra vires purposes, or that publication of the information might prejudice the Company or related companies.

5. The information requested may not be denied if it is supported by shareholders representing at least twenty-five per cent of the share capital.

6. The Board of Directors may authorise any of its members, its secretary, its deputy secretary or deputy secretaries or any other person it deems appropriate, in order for any of them to respond on behalf of the Board of Directors to shareholder requests for information.

7. To ensure the equal treatment of all shareholders, valid requests for information, clarification or requests made in writing by the shareholders and the answers provided in the same form by the Board of Directors or the persons delegated thereby shall be included in the corporate website of the Company.

8. If, prior to the presentation of a specific question, the information requested is clearly, expressly and directly available to all shareholders on the corporate website in question/answer format, the answer may consist of a reference to the information provided in such format.

Article 16. Participation

The Board of Directors shall adopt appropriate measures to encourage maximum participation of the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, including the ability to deliver promotional material or gifts with symbolic value to the shareholders participating in the General Shareholders’ Meeting or in the holding of similar promotions. Any items remaining from the promotions shall be used for social welfare purposes.

3. A proxy granted by any of the means indicated in the preceding section must be received by the Company before 24:00 on the day immediately prior to the day on which the General Shareholders’ Meeting is held upon first call or upon second call, as applicable.

4. The Board of Directors is authorised to further develop the foregoing provisions by establishing rules, means and procedures adjusted to current techniques in order to organise the grant of proxies by electronic means, in each case in accordance with the rules and regulations issued for such purpose.

Specifically, the Board of Directors may establish rules for the use of personal passwords and other guarantees other than electronic signatures for the granting of proxies by electronic correspondence, reduce the advance period established above for receipt by the Company of proxies granted by postal or electronic correspondence, and allow and authorise the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting and the persons acting by delegation therefrom to accept any absentee votes received after such period, to the extent allowed by the means available.

5. The chairman and the secretary of the Board of Directors or the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting, from the constitution thereof, and the persons acting by delegation from either of them, shall have the broadest powers for verifying the identity of the shareholders and their representatives, verifying the ownership and status of their rights, and recognising the validity of the attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or the instrument evidencing attendance or representation by proxy.

6. A proxy is always revocable. Attendance by the shareholder granting the proxy at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, whether in person or due to having cast an absentee vote on a date subsequent to that of the proxy, shall have the effect of revoking the proxy.

7. A public solicitation for proxies by the Board of Directors or any of its members shall be governed by the provisions of law and by the corresponding resolution of the Board of Directors, if any.

8. A proxy may cover those matters that the law allows to be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting even when not included in the agenda.

9. If the proxy has been validly granted pursuant to law and these Regulations but does not include voting instructions or questions arise as to the intended proxy-holder or the scope of the representation, and unless otherwise indicated by the shareholder, it shall be deemed that: (i) the proxy is granted in favour of the chairman of the Board of Directors; (ii) refers to all of the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting; (iii) contains the instruction to vote favourably on all proposals made by the Board of Directors with respect to the items on the agenda of the call to meeting; and (iv) extends to matters that, although not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, may be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting in accordance with law, in respect of which the proxy-holder shall vote in the direction the proxy-holder deems most favourable to the interests of the shareholder granting the proxy, within the framework of the corporate interest.

the constitution thereof, and the persons acting by delegation from either of them, shall have the broadest powers for verifying the identity of the shareholders and their representatives, verifying the ownership and status of their rights, and recognising the validity of the attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or the instrument evidencing attendance or representation by proxy.

6. A proxy is always revocable. Attendance by the shareholder granting the proxy at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, whether in person or due to having cast an absentee vote on a date subsequent to that of the proxy, shall have the effect of revoking the proxy.

7. A public solicitation for proxies by the Board of Directors or any of its members shall be governed by the provisions of law and by the corresponding resolution of the Board of Directors, if any.

8. A proxy may cover those matters that the law allows to be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting even when not included in the agenda.

9. If the proxy has been validly granted pursuant to law and these Regulations but does not include voting instructions or questions arise as to the intended proxy-holder or the scope of the representation, and unless otherwise indicated by the shareholder, it shall be deemed that: (i) the proxy is granted in favour of the chairman of the Board of Directors; (ii) refers to all of the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting; (iii) contains the instruction to vote favourably on all proposals made by the Board of Directors with respect to the items on the agenda of the call to meeting; and (iv) extends to matters that, although not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, may be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting in accordance with law, in respect of which the proxy-holder shall vote in the direction the proxy-holder deems most favourable to the interests of the shareholder granting the proxy, within the framework of the corporate interest.
This provision may be further developed by any rules approved by the Board of Directors that systematise, further develop, adapt and specify the provisions of the Corporate Governance System regarding the management of the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

10. Before being appointed, the proxy-holder shall provide detailed information to the shareholder regarding the existence of any conflict of interest. If the conflict is subsequent to the appointment and the shareholder granting the proxy has not been advised of the possible existence of such conflict, the proxy-holder shall immediately inform the shareholder thereof. In both cases, if the proxy-holder has not received new specific voting instructions regarding each of the matters on which the proxy-holder has to vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy-holder shall abstain from voting, without prejudice to the provisions of the following section.

11. Unless otherwise expressly indicated by the shareholder, if the proxy-holder is affected by a conflict of interest and has no specific voting instructions, or if the proxy-holder has them but it is deemed preferable that the proxy-holder not exercise the proxy with respect to the items involved in the conflict of interest, the shareholder shall be deemed to have appointed the following persons as proxy-holders for such items, severally and successively, in the event that any of them is in turn affected by a conflict of interest: first, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting, second, the secretary therefor, and finally, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors, if any. In this latter event, if there are several deputy secretaries, the order to be used shall be the order established at the time of their appointment (first deputy secretary, second deputy secretary, etc.). The proxy representative so designated shall cast the vote in the direction deemed most favourable to the interests of the person represented thereby, within the framework of the corporate interest.

12. A proxy representative may hold the proxy of more than one shareholder without limitation.

This provision may be further developed by any rules approved by the Board of Directors that systematise, further develop, adapt and specify the provisions of the Corporate Governance System regarding the management of the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

10. Before being appointed, the proxy-holder shall provide detailed information to the shareholder regarding the existence of any conflict of interest. In both cases, if the proxy-holder has not received new specific voting instructions regarding each of the matters on which the proxy-holder has to vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy-holder shall abstain from voting, without prejudice to the provisions of the following section.

11. Unless otherwise expressly indicated by the shareholder, if the proxy-holder is affected by a conflict of interest and has no specific voting instructions, or if the proxy-holder has them but it is deemed preferable that the proxy-holder not exercise the proxy with respect to the items involved in the conflict of interest, the shareholder shall be deemed to have appointed the following persons as proxy-holders for such items, severally and successively, in the event that any of them is in turn affected by a conflict of interest: first, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting, second, the secretary therefor, and finally, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors, if any. Article 33. Ratification, if Appropriate, of the Quorum for the General Shareholders’ Meeting
1. Prior to the commencement of the presentation period, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting or the secretary by delegation therefrom, shall read the information contained in the list of attendees, detailing the number of shareholders present in person and by proxy, the number of shares represented in person and by proxy, with an indication of the percentage of share capital that both represent, and the total number of shareholders and shares in attendance at the meeting, with an indication of the share capital that such shares represent.

2. Once this information has been publicly announced, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall, if appropriate, declare the existence of a proper and sufficient quorum on first or second call, as the case may be, and shall decide if the shareholders can debate and adopt resolutions regarding all matters contained in the agenda or if, on the contrary, debate must be limited to only some of them.

3. If appropriate, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall announce the presence of a notary public at the meeting and shall identify such notary public, taking notice of the request to prepare the minutes of the meeting.

4. If a notary public has been requested to prepare the minutes of the meeting, the notary public shall ask the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting and make clear in the minutes whether there are reservations or objections regarding the statements of the chair of or the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting in connection with the number of shareholders in attendance and the share capital represented in person and by proxy.
