TITLE I. NATURE, OBJECT AND APPROVAL

Article 1. Nature and Object

1. Pursuant to the Governance and Sustainability System of IBERDROLA, S.A. (the “Company”), the Board of Directors establishes the Audit and Risk Supervision Committee (hereinafter, the “Committee”), a permanent internal informational and consultative body without executive duties, with information, advisory and proposal-making powers within its scope of action and which shall be governed by the provisions set forth in the By-Laws, in the Regulations of the Board of Directors and in these Regulations of the Audit and Risk Supervision Committee (the “Regulations”).
2. The object of these Regulations is to favour the independence of the Committee and to determine the principles of conduct and the rules of internal operation thereof, without prejudice to the powers of the committees or equivalent bodies that may exist at companies, whether or not listed, belonging to the group of companies of which the Company is the controlling entity, within the meaning established by law (the “Group”).
3. These Regulations have been prepared taking into account the good governance recommendations generally accepted in international markets and form part of the Governance and Sustainability System.

Article 2. Approval, Amendment and Priority

1. These Regulations must be approved by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors on the initiative of the Board, of the chairman thereof, of the chair of the Committee, of one-third of the directors or of the Committee itself.
 2. Any amendment hereof must be approved by resolution adopted by the Board of Directors on the initiative of the Board, of the chairman thereof, of the chair of the Committee, of one-third of the directors or of the Committee itself.
 3. These Regulations further develop and supplement the provisions of the By-Laws and of the Regulations of the Board of Directors applicable to the Committee. The latter provisions shall prevail in the event of conflict with the former.

TITLE II. POWERS

Article 3. Powers

The Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Conduct a periodic review of the risk policies on at least an annual basis and, if it so deems appropriate, propose the amendment and update thereof to the Board of Directors.
- b. Approve the auditor contracting policy establishing the procedure for the selection and contracting of the Company's auditor, the relations therewith, the circumstances that might affect the independence thereof and the instruments required to ensure the transparency of such relationship.
- c. Ensure that the annual accounts that the Board of Directors submits to the shareholders at the General Shareholders' Meeting are prepared in accordance with accounting standards, reporting thereto on the issues raised therein by the shareholders that are within the purview of the Committee, and particularly with respect to the results of the audit of the annual accounts, explaining how it has contributed to the integrity of the financial information and the role that it has played in such process, and if the auditor has included any qualification in the report, the opinion of the Committee regarding the content and scope thereof.
- d. Monitor the effectiveness of internal control at the Company and within its Group, as well as of their system for managing risks.
- e. Together with the statutory auditors, analyse significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected during the audit, all without infringing upon the independence thereof. To this end, if appropriate, it may submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors and the corresponding follow-up period.
- f. Supervise the process of preparing and presenting regulated financial information relating to the Company, both individual and consolidated with its subsidiaries, reviewing compliance with legal requirements, the proper delimitation of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting standards, and submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors to safeguard the integrity thereof. This supervisory work of the Committee must be carried out continuously, and also performed specifically at the request of the Board of Directors.
- g. Propose to the Board of Directors for submission to the shareholders at a General Shareholders' Meeting the appointment, re-election or replacement of the auditors, as well as the terms for the hiring thereof, in accordance with applicable legal provisions, and regularly receive therefrom information regarding the audit plan and the implementation thereof, in addition to preserving the independence thereof in the performance of its duties.
- h. In relation to the statement of non-financial information: (i) supervise the process of preparing and presenting the non-financial information regarding the Company and its Group; (ii) propose to the Board of Directors the appointment of the independent assurance provider responsible for verifying the information included therein; and (iii) report to the Sustainable Development Committee on the process of preparing and presenting the statement of non-financial information as well as on the clarity thereof and on the integrity of the content thereof.
- i. Supervise the activities of the Internal Audit Area and the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division, which are functionally controlled by the Committee.
- j. Authorise in advance the non-audit services that the Company's audit firm, or the persons or entities connected thereto pursuant to the provisions of the law on auditing of accounts, will provide to companies of the Group, as provided by law.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

In order for the Committee to authorise the provision of said services, it must assess whether the audit firm is the most appropriate firm to provide them based on its knowledge and experience, and in this case shall analyse: (i) the nature thereof and the circumstances and context in which it occurs, (ii) the status, position or influence of the provider of the service and other relations thereof with the Company; (iii) the effects thereof; and (iv) whether said services could threaten the independence of the auditor and, if applicable, the establishment of measures eliminating or reducing these threats to a level that does not compromise the independence thereof.

It must also assess the remuneration for the non-audit services, individually or as a whole, compared to the remuneration for audit services and the parameters used by the audit firm to determine its own remuneration policy.

- k. Establish appropriate relationships with the auditors to receive information regarding matters that might entail a threat to the independence thereof, for examination by the Committee, and any other information related to the development of the audit procedure, as well as such other communications as are provided for in the laws on auditing of accounts and in other legal provisions on auditing.

In any event, it must receive written confirmation from the auditors on an annual basis of their independence in relation to the Company or entities directly or indirectly related thereto, as well as a detailed breakdown of information on additional services of any kind provided to and the corresponding fees received from such entities by such auditors or persons or entities related thereto, pursuant to the legal provisions governing the auditing of accounts.

- l. On an annual basis, prior to the audit report, issue a report containing an opinion on whether the independence of the auditors is compromised, which shall be made available to the shareholders upon the terms set forth in the Regulations for the General Shareholders' Meeting. This report shall contain a reasoned assessment of the provision of each and every one of the additional services other than the legal audit referred to in the preceding letter, considered individually and as a whole, and in relation to the rules on independence or the legal provisions regarding the auditing of accounts.
- m. Report in advance to the Board of Directors regarding the financial information that the Company must disclose on a regular basis because of its status as a listed company, making sure that the interim financial statements are prepared in accordance with the same accounting standards as the annual accounts and, for such purpose, it shall consider the appropriateness of a limited review by the auditors.
- n. Report to the Board of Directors, prior to the Board's decision thereon, regarding the creation or acquisition of interests in special purpose entities or entities registered in countries or territories that are considered to be tax havens or that are included in the EU blacklist of non-cooperative jurisdictions.
- o. Report to the Board of Directors, prior to the Board's decision thereon, regarding the creation or acquisition of interests in special purpose entities as well as regarding any other transactions or operations of a similar nature that, due to the complexity thereof, might diminish the transparency of the Group.
By way of exception, the transactions described in letters m) and n) above shall not be subject to a prior report from this Committee when they are carried out by listed country subholding companies of the Group or subsidiaries thereof.
- p. Report on the structural modifications and corporate transactions to be undertaken by the Company, analysing the economic terms and conditions thereof, including if appropriate the exchange ratio as well as the accounting impact thereof.
- q. Issue such other reports and take such other actions as may also fall within its purview pursuant to the Governance and Sustainability System or as may be requested by the Board of Directors or the chairman thereof.

Article 4. Powers regarding the Internal Audit Area

In this regard, the Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Ensure the independence and effectiveness of the Internal Audit Area and that it has sufficient resources and that its members have suitable professional qualifications to carry out its duties most efficiently.
- b. Approve the direction and annual plan of the Internal Audit Area, ensuring that it exercises its powers proactively and that its activities are mainly focused on significant risks to the Company and its Group (including reputational risks), as well as receive periodic information regarding the activities carried out by the Internal Audit Area.
- c. Approve the budget of the Internal Audit Area.
- d. Evaluate the operation of the Internal Audit Area and the performance of the director thereof, for which purpose the Committee shall obtain any opinion held by the chief executive.

The evaluation shall be constructive and shall include an assessment of the level of compliance with targets and with standards for purposes of setting the variable components of the remuneration of the director of the Internal Audit Area, in which determination the Committee must also participate.

The conclusions from the assessment made by the Committee must be communicated by the secretary thereof, through the secretary of the Board of Directors, to the director of the Internal Audit Area and to the Remuneration Committee, so that they may be properly taken into account when determining the remuneration thereof.

- e. Verify, based on the corresponding reports of the Internal Audit Area, that the members of senior management take into account the conclusions and recommendations contained in its reports.

Article 5. Powers regarding the Internal Control and Risk Management Systems

In this regard, the Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Continuously review the internal control and risk management systems, such that the principal risks are properly identified, managed and reported.
- b. Supervise the effectiveness of the internal control and risk management systems, for which purpose it shall obtain reports from the Internal Audit Area, from the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division and from any other person hired for this purpose, in order to arrive at a conclusion regarding the trustworthiness and reliability of the systems and, if appropriate, make potential proposals for improvement.

- c. Obtain information regarding any significant deficiency in internal control that the auditor detects while carrying out its audit work.
- d. Ensure that the Group's internal control and risk management system identifies at least:
 - i. The different types of financial and non-financial risks (including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks, or risks relating to corruption) facing the Company and the Group, including, among financial risks, contingent liabilities and other off-balance sheet risks.
 - ii. The establishment and review of the risk map and levels that the Company deems acceptable.
 - iii. The measures planned in order to mitigate the impact of identified risks in the event that they materialise.
 - iv. The information and internal control systems that will be used to monitor and manage the aforementioned risks, including contingent liabilities and other off-balance sheet risks.
- e. Maintain appropriate relationships with the audit and compliance committees of the other companies of the Group.
- f. Promote (within the limits of its powers) a culture in which risk is a factor that is taken into account in all decisions and at all levels within the Company.
- g. Identify and evaluate emerging risks, like those arising from technological, environmental, social and regulatory changes, as well as reputational risks, including corruption-related risks, as well as existing alert mechanisms, periodically evaluating the effectiveness thereof.
- h. Obtain creditable information as to whether the most significant risks are managed and maintained within the tolerance figures that have been established, and evaluate the various risk tolerance levels established in the risk policies in order to, if appropriate, propose the adjustment thereof based on the information provided by the Company's management, the Internal Audit Area and the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division.
- i. At least annually, call a meeting with each of the heads of the businesses of the Group and of the relevant corporate areas to exercise the powers of the Committee to be informed of the trends of their respective businesses or corporate areas and the risks associated therewith, all without prejudice to the corporate and governance structure of the Group, pursuant to which each of the head of business companies directly and effectively manages the risks of its businesses.
- j. Report in advance on the risks of the Group to be included in the Company's Annual Corporate Governance Report and give notice thereof to the Board of Directors, through the Sustainable Development Committee, for an assessment of its conclusions.
- k. Generally ensure that the internal control policies and systems are effectively applied in practice.

Article 6. Powers regarding the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division

In this regard, the Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Directly supervise the activities of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division, ensure the effectiveness thereof and that it has sufficient resources and that its members have suitable professional qualifications to carry out its duties most efficiently.
- b. Approve the focus and the annual plan of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division and the budget thereof, and receive regular reports on the activities carried out thereby.
- c. Issue its opinion regarding the operation of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division and the performance of the director thereof, which shall be sent by the chairman of the Committee to the chairman of the Board of Directors, who is responsible for the evaluation thereof. The secretary of the Committee shall send said opinion, through the secretary of the Board of Directors, to the Remuneration Committee so that it is properly taken into account when determining the remuneration of the director of said division.

Article 7. Powers regarding Auditing

- a. Approve, periodically review and ensure compliance with the Auditor Contracting and Relations Policy.
- b. Propose to the Board of Directors the appointment, re-election or removal of the auditor of the accounts of the Company and of the accounts of the Company consolidated with those of its Group, taking responsibility for the process followed for the selection thereof, pursuant to the provisions of law and the Auditor Contracting and Relations Policy.
- c. Guide and propose to the competent governance bodies the appointment, re-election or removal of the auditors of the other companies of the Group, unless they have corporate governance rules similar to those of the Company that assign such duties of guidance and proposal-making to their respective audit and risk supervision committees or similar bodies.
- d. Ensure the independence of the auditors and that they are not affected by any circumstances of prohibition or disqualification and, for such purpose:
 - i. Verify that the Company and the auditor comply with applicable regulations regarding the provision of non-audit services, the limits on the concentration of the auditor's business, the rules on professional fees and, in general, all other regulations established in order to ensure the independence of the auditors.
 - ii. Establish an indicative ceiling on the fees that may be received each year by the auditor for non-audit services.
 - iii. In the event of resignation of the auditor, examine the circumstances that may have given rise thereto.
 - iv. On an annual basis and prior to the issuance of the audit report, issue a report setting forth an opinion on the independence of the auditors.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

- v. Ensure compliance with the prohibitions upon completion of the audit work as provided by law.
- e. Review the contents of the audit reports on the accounts and of the reports on the limited review of interim accounts, if any, as well as other mandatory reports to be prepared by the auditors, prior to the issuance thereof, in order to avoid qualified reports.
- f. Assess the results of each audit of accounts and supervise the response of the members of senior management to the recommendations made therein.
- g. On an annual basis, evaluate the activities performed by the auditor pursuant to the provisions of the Auditor Contracting and Relations Policy.
- h. Ensure that the auditor carrying out the audit of the annual accounts or of consolidated accounting documents assumes full responsibility for the audit report issued, even when the annual accounts of the companies in which the Company has an interest have been audited by other auditors.
- i. Act as a channel of communication between the Board of Directors and the auditors, causing them to hold an annual meeting with the Board of Directors to report thereto on the work performed and the accounting and risk status of the Company.
- j. Ensure that the change in statutory auditor and any potential disputes with the outgoing auditor are disseminated by sending to the National Securities Market Commission (Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores) the appropriate notice of inside information or other relevant information.

Article 8. Powers regarding the Process of Preparing Financial Information

In this regard, the Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Supervise the process of preparation and submission and the clarity and integrity of the financial information with respect to the Company and its Group, ensuring that the Half-Yearly Financial Reports and the quarterly management statements are prepared in accordance with the same accounting standards as the Annual Financial Reports and, for such purpose, it shall consider the appropriateness of a limited review of the Half-Yearly Financial Reports by the auditor.
In particular, based on available sources of internal information (including reports from the Internal Audit Area and from the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division, reports from other areas or departments or the analysis and opinion of the Company's management team itself) and external information (including reports from experts or information received from the statutory auditor), the Committee shall reach its own conclusion as to whether the Company has properly applied the accounting policies.
- b. Ensure compliance with legal requirements, the proper delimitation of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of such generally accepted accounting principles and international financial reporting standards as may be applicable with respect to the regulated financial information relating to the Company and its Group.
- c. Evaluate any proposal made by the members of senior management regarding changes in accounting practices.
- d. Analyse the reasons why the Company may itemize certain alternative information on returns in its public information instead of the measures directly defined by accounting rules, the extent to which useful information is provided to investors and the level of compliance thereof with best practices and international recommendations in this area.
- e. Obtain information on significant adjustments identified by the auditor or that result from revisions made by the Internal Audit Area and the position of the management team regarding said adjustments.
- f. Timely and properly attend to, answer and take into account any requests sent thereto by the National Securities Market Commission during the current financial year or in prior years, ensuring that the same types of incidents previously identified in said requests are not repeated in the financial statements.
- g. Check that the financial information approved by the Board of Directors and published on the corporate website of the Company is continuously updated and that it coincides with the information that has been approved by the Board of Directors and published on the website of the National Securities Market Commission. If the Committee is not satisfied with any aspect thereof after the review, it shall communicate its opinion to the Board of Directors through the secretary thereof.

Article 9. Powers regarding the Process of Preparing Non-Financial Information and the Appointment of the External Assurance Provider

In this regard, the Committee shall have the following main functions:

- a. Based on available sources of internal information (including reports from the Internal Audit Area and from the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division, reports from other areas or departments or the analysis and opinion of the Company's management team itself) and external information (including reports from experts or information received from the independent assurance provider), supervise the process of preparing and presenting the statement of non-financial information regarding the Company and its Group, as well as the transparency and integrity of the contents thereof.
- b. Report to the Sustainable Development Committee on the process of preparing and presenting the statement of non-financial information, as well as on the clarity thereof and on the integrity of the content thereof. Said report shall be issued prior to the report that must be issued by the Sustainable Development Committee regarding the aforementioned statement of non-financial information and the preparation thereof by the Board of Directors.
- c. Propose to the Board of Directors the appointment of the independent assurance provider responsible for assurance of the information contained in the statement of non-financial information.
- d. Serve as a channel of communication and monitor the work of assuring the statement of non-financial information by the independent assurance provider, consult therewith regarding the process of preparation and presentation thereof and the clarity and integrity of the content thereof, and report on all of the above to the Sustainable Development Committee.

- e. Check that the non-financial information published on the corporate website of the Company is continuously updated and that it coincides with the information that has been prepared by the Board of Directors and published on the website of the National Securities Market Commission. If the Committee is not satisfied with any aspect thereof after the review, it shall communicate its opinion to the Board of Directors through the secretary thereof.

Article 10. Other Powers Entrusted to the Committee

The Committee shall also have the following functions:

- a. Establish and supervise mechanisms, like the Company's ethics mailboxes, whereby professionals and other people related to the Company, like directors, shareholders, suppliers, contractors and subcontractors, can report potentially significant irregularities, including of a financial and accounting nature, or of any other kind, related to the Company, that they notice therein or within the Group. This mechanism must guarantee confidentiality and in any case provide for cases in which reports can be made anonymously, in all events respecting the legal provisions on the protection of personal data and the fundamental rights of the parties concerned.
- b. Monitor investigations performed by the Compliance Unit regarding potentially significant financial and non-financial improprieties, of the results thereof and of proposals for action and, when it so deems necessary, propose appropriate actions to reduce the risk of the future commission thereof.
- c. Prior to the preparation of the annual accounts and to the filing of the Corporate Income Tax return, obtain from the Company's tax director, for transmittal to the Board of Directors, information on the tax guidelines used by the Company during the financial year and, in particular, on the level of compliance with the Corporate Tax Policy.
- d. Based on the information received from the Company's tax director, report to the Board of Directors on the tax policies applied and, in the case of transactions or matters that must be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval, regarding the tax consequences thereof when such consequences represent a significant issue.

TITLE III. COMPOSITION

Article 11. Composition

1. The Committee shall be composed of a minimum of three and a maximum of five directors appointed by the Board of Directors upon a proposal of the Appointments Committee from among the non-executive directors who are not members of the Executive Committee.
2. Within the aforementioned limits, the Committee may submit to the Board of Directors a proposal for amendment of the number of Committee members when it is deemed that such number will contribute to the more efficient operation of the Committee.
3. Diversity shall be sought in the composition thereof, particularly as regards, gender, professional experience, competencies, industry knowledge and geographic origin.
4. A majority of the members of the Committee shall be independent, and at least one of them shall be appointed taking into account the knowledge and experience thereof in the areas of accounting, audit and risk management. A director shall be deemed to have knowledge and experience in accounting and audit if the director has:
 - a. knowledge of legal provisions on accounting and audit;
 - b. ability to assess and interpret the application of accounting rules;
 - c. experience in preparing, auditing, analysing or evaluating financial statements with a certain level of complexity similar to those of the Company itself, or experience in supervising one or more persons involved in this work; and
 - d. understanding of the internal control mechanisms relating to the process of preparing financial information.
5. The Board of Directors and the Appointments Committee shall endeavour to ensure that the members of the Committee as a whole, and especially the chair thereof, have the expertise, qualifications and experience appropriate for the duties they are called upon to perform in the area of accounting, auditing and management of risks, both financial and non-financial, and that at least one of them has experience in information technology. They shall also endeavour to ensure that as a whole the members of the Committee have relevant technical knowledge in the finance and internal control area, as well as in relation to the energy sector.

Article 12. Positions

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint a chair of the Committee from among the independent directors forming part thereof, who must be a director with sufficient capacity and availability to provide greater dedication to the Committee than the rest of the members thereof.
2. The Board of Directors shall also appoint a secretary of the Committee, who need not be a director.

Article 13. Term of Office

1. Committee members shall be appointed for a maximum term of four years and may be re-elected on one or more occasions for terms of the same maximum length.
2. The chair of the Committee shall hold office for a maximum period of four years, after which period the director who has held office as such may not be re-elected as chair of the Committee until the passage of at least one year from ceasing to act as such, without prejudice to the continuance or re-election thereof as a member of the Committee.
3. Committee members who are re-elected as directors of the Company by resolution of the shareholders at a General Shareholders' Meeting shall continue in their positions on the Committee, without the need for a new election, unless the Board of Directors resolves otherwise.

In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

Article 14. Cessation of Office

Committee members shall cease to hold office:

- a. When they cease to be directors of the Company.
- b. When they cease to be non-executive directors, even if they continue as directors of the Company.
- c. When they become members of the Executive Committee.
- d. Upon expiration of the maximum term for which they were appointed without being re-elected.
- e. By resolution of the Board of Directors.

TITLE IV. TRAINING

Article 15. Orientation Programme

In order for new members of the Committee to be able to actively perform their duties as from their appointment, the Orientation Programme provided for in the Regulations of the Board of Directors shall be made available to them on the directors' website.

Article 16. Training Programme

The Committee shall have a periodic training plan that ensures the updating of knowledge relating to new developments in accounting rules, the specific regulatory framework of the Group's businesses, internal and external audit, the management and supervision of risks, internal control and technological advances relevant to the Company.

TITLE V. OPERATION

Article 17. Annual Work Plan

1. Before the beginning of each financial year, the Committee shall approve an annual work plan that contemplates at least the following aspects:
 - a. The specific goals established for the financial year relating to each of the powers of the Committee, especially those that might be new or relate to significant issues.
 - a. Issues that should be dealt with on a recurring or one-time basis during the financial year.
 - a. The planning of the training deemed appropriate for the proper performance of the duties thereof.
2. This planning shall take into account that the members of the Committee have responsibilities, mainly of supervision and advice, and should not intervene in the performance or management of matters within the authority of the Company's management.

Article 18. Schedule and Meetings

1. Once the annual meeting schedule of the Board of Directors has been approved, the chair and the secretary of the Committee shall prepare a proposed annual schedule for the meetings of the Committee during the first month of the financial year, ensuring that there are at least four meetings per year and that they are held on days prior to the meetings of the Board of Directors.
2. Preparation of the proposed schedule must consider the time to be devoted to the various duties of the Committee and must take into account the meeting schedule of the Board of Directors and the date for holding the General Shareholders' Meeting, in order to prepare any reports or proposals to be submitted regarding the matters to be dealt with, as well as the report on the activities of the Committee referred to in article 25 below.
3. The proposed schedule shall include the tentative agendas and any appearances that may be deemed necessary. This proposal shall systematically reflect the tentative agenda for the meetings, planning fixed sections for issues that are dealt with on a recurring basis, and other sections for issues that are only dealt with at particular meetings. Generally, risk supervision shall be included in the agenda for the Committee's meetings, so that an analysis can be made throughout the year of all significant risks, both financial and non-financial, the latter relating to aspects such as tax, cybersecurity and the cyber-resilience capacity of the group.
4. The secretary of the Committee shall send the proposed schedule to the secretary of the Board of Directors for validation and subsequent preparation of the meeting schedule of the corporate decision-making bodies, pursuant to the provisions of article 29.7 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors. Once the proposed schedule is validated by the Office of the Secretary of the Board of Directors, the Committee shall approve the annual meeting schedule.
5. Where appropriate, the meeting schedule shall be supplemented with the scheduling of preparatory work sessions or meetings on specific issues.
6. The Committee shall meet at least upon the occasion of each date of publication of annual or interim financial information. Said meetings shall be attended by the director of the Internal Audit Area, the head of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division, and also by the statutory auditor when it issues a review report. At least a portion of said meetings with the statutory auditor shall take place without the presence of the Company's management team, so that the members can discuss among themselves specific issues that arise during the reviews.
7. Without prejudice to the provisions of the preceding sections, the Committee shall meet as many times as the chair thereof deems is necessary to exercise the powers entrusted thereto, as well as when requested by at least two of its members. Prior to sending a call to a meeting not provided for in the meeting schedule of the corporate decision-making bodies, the secretary of the Committee shall send to the secretary of the Board of Directors for validation the date, agenda and any appearances that may be deemed necessary.

8. The chairman of the Board of Directors and the chief executive officer may request informational meetings with the Committee on an exceptional basis.

Article 19. Call to Meeting

1. The secretary of the Committee shall, by order of the chair thereof, call the Committee to meeting at least eight days in advance thereof, except in the case of urgent meetings.
2. The call to meeting shall be carried out by any means allowing for receipt thereof and shall include the agenda for the meeting and the documentation expected to be made available to the members of the Committee, which shall first be reviewed by the Office of the Secretary of the Board of Directors to ensure the consistency thereof with the meeting schedule of the corporate decision-making bodies and the Governance and Sustainability System.
3. No prior call to a meeting of the Committee shall be required when all of its members are present and unanimously agree to the holding of the meeting and to the items of the agenda to be dealt with.

Article 20. Place of Meetings

1. Meetings of the Committee shall be held in person at the place designated in the call to meeting.
2. If so decided by the chair of the Committee on an exceptional basis, a meeting may be called to be held at several connected places or on-line by using remote communication systems that permit the recognition and identification of the attendees, permanent communication among them and participation in discussion and the casting of votes, all in real time, which meeting shall be deemed to be held at the registered office. The members of the Committee in attendance at any of such interconnected places shall be deemed to have attended the same meeting of the Committee for all purposes.

Article 21. Establishment of a Quorum

1. A valid quorum for Committee meetings shall be established with the attendance, in person or by proxy, of a majority of its members.
2. The chair of the Committee shall preside over the meeting. In the event of the vacancy, illness, incapacity or absence of the chair of the Committee, the meeting shall be chaired by the director having the longest length of service on the Committee, and if equal lengths of service, by the oldest.
3. The secretary of the Committee shall act as secretary for the meeting. In the event of vacancy, illness, incapacity or absence of the secretary of the Committee, the person appointed by the Committee for such purpose shall act as secretary.
4. Committee members may give a proxy to another member by any of the means allowing for receipt thereof, addressed to the secretary of the Committee and including the terms on which the proxy is given. However, they may not give a proxy in connection with matters affecting them personally or regarding which they are involved in any conflict of interest situation.
5. On an exceptional basis, based on the circumstances in each case, the chair of the Committee may authorise the attendance at the meeting of one or more members by using remote connection systems that permit the recognition and identification thereof, permanent communication with the place where the meeting is held, and their participation therein and the casting of votes, all in real time. Members connected remotely shall be deemed for all purposes to have attended the meeting of the Committee.

Article 22. Resolutions

1. Resolutions of the Committee shall be adopted by an absolute majority of the votes of the members present at the meeting in person or by proxy. In the event of a tie, the chair of the Committee shall have the tie-breaking vote.
2. All resolutions adopted shall be recorded in minutes signed by the chair and the secretary of the Committee or by the persons acting in their stead. They shall be approved at the same meeting or at the meeting held immediately thereafter, shall be made available to all of the directors and shall be entered in a book of minutes of the Committee.

Article 23. Conflicts of Interest

When matters to be dealt with at a meeting of the Committee directly affect one of its members or persons related thereto and, in general, when such member is subject to a conflict of interest situation (upon the terms established in the Regulations of the Board of Directors), such member must leave the meeting until a decision is made, and such member shall be subtracted from the number of Committee members for purposes of calculating the quorum and majorities with respect to the matter at hand.

Article 24. Attendance

1. At the request of the chair of the Committee, addressed for such purpose to the chairman of the Board of Directors, any director may be asked to attend the meetings thereof.
2. By means of a reasoned request, the chair of the Committee may also request, through the secretary of the Board of Directors, the attendance of any director, member of senior management or professional of the Group as well as of any member of the management decision-making bodies of the companies in which the Company has an interest whose appointment has been proposed by the Company, provided that there is no legal impediment thereto. The secretary of the Board of Directors shall evaluate the suitability of the appearances requested based on the matters to be discussed, the powers of the Committee, the identity of the person whose attendance is requested and the meeting schedules of the corporate decision-making bodies from time to time in effect.
3. Persons who are not members of the Committee may not attend those portions of the meetings at which the matters dealt with are outside the scope of the powers or duties of such persons.
4. The Committee, through its chair, may request the presence at its meetings of both the Company's statutory auditor as well as the statutory auditor of any entity within the Group, provided that there is no legal impediment thereto. The Company's statutory auditor shall not attend the decision-making portion of the Committee's meetings.

5. The presence of members of management, professionals or other directors, whether executive or not, at meetings of the Committee shall be on an occasional basis and only when required, after an invitation from the chair of the Committee, shall be strictly limited to those items on the agenda for which they are called, and they shall not attend the decision-making portion of the Committee's meetings.
6. The chair may authorise the remote attendance of the persons indicated in sections 4 and 5 above using the communication systems described in article 21.5 above, if the chair so deems appropriate. The secretary shall record the entries and exits of guests at meetings in the minutes.

TITLE VI. RELATIONSHIPS

Article 25. Relationship with the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. The Committee shall report to the shareholders at the General Shareholders' Meeting with respect to the matters raised therein by the shareholders on matters within its purview, and particularly with respect to the results of the audit of the annual accounts, explaining how it has contributed to the integrity of the financial information and the role that the Committee has played in such process.
2. In those instances in which the statutory auditor has included a qualification in its audit report, the chair of the Committee shall clearly explain at the General Shareholders' Meeting the opinion of the Committee regarding the content and scope thereof, making a summary of said opinion available to the shareholders at the time of publication of the call to meeting, together with the other proposals and reports of the Board of Directors.
3. Pursuant to the provisions of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Activities Report of the Board of Directors and of the Committees thereof, which shall include information regarding the operation and the activities of the Committee during the preceding financial year, shall be made available to the shareholders and the other Stakeholders for purposes of the call to the General Shareholders' Meeting.
4. In particular, the section of the Activities Report of the Board of Directors and of the Committees thereof regarding the Committee must allow the shareholders and other interested parties to understand the activities performed by the Committee during the financial year in question, for which reason the publication must contain at least the following aspects:
 - a. Description of the regulation of the Committee.
 - b. Composition of the Committee during the financial year, including the classification and seniority of each of the members thereof, as well as the significant abilities in terms of knowledge and experience contributed by each member.
 - c. The standards used to determine and the rationale explaining the composition of the Committee, particularly in relation to the appointment of members who are not independent directors.
 - d. Duties and work performed during the financial year by the Committee, changes therein during the fiscal year and reference to these Regulations.
 - e. Meetings held during the financial year and number of attendees, including whether non-members of the Committee have been invited.
 - f. Number of meetings held with the internal auditor and with the external auditor.
 - g. Significant activities during the period (reporting those that have been performed with the assistance of external experts) relating to:
 - i. financial and related non-financial information and the mechanisms associated with internal control;
 - ii. risk management and control;
 - iii. the Internal Audit Area;
 - iv. the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division;
 - v. the auditor;
 - vi. follow-up on the action plans of the Committee; and
 - vii. the nature and scope of any communications with the regulators.
 - h. Evaluation of the operation and performance of the Committee, as well as of the methods used to assess the effectiveness thereof.
 - i. Information regarding the Committee's opinion on the independence of the auditor.
 - j. Independence and conflicts of interest of external advisors, experts and consultants.
 - k. Information regarding which domestic or international practical guides on audit committees are being followed, if any, and to what extent.
 - l. Significant deviations from the procedures adopted or improprieties of which the Board of Directors has been notified in writing in areas within the purview of the Committee.

Article 26. Relationship with the Board of Directors

The chair of the Committee shall inform the Board of Directors, at the next meeting thereof following the meetings of the committee, of the matters dealt with and the resolutions adopted during its meetings.

Article 27. Relationship with the Internal Audit Area

1. Pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, the Committee's relations with the Internal Audit Area shall respect the independence thereof.

In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

2. The Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors, for approval thereby, after a report of the Appointments Committee, the appointment and removal of the director of the Internal Audit Area.
3. The chairman of the Board of Directors, based on the proposal made by the Committee, shall propose to the Board of Directors the approval of Basic Internal Audit Regulations governing the nature, organisation, competencies, powers and duties of the Internal Audit Area of the Company and of the divisions of the Internal Audit of the Group.
4. The Committee shall ensure that the members of the Internal Audit Area have access to the documentation and to the staff necessary for the performance of its duties in accordance with the Governance and Sustainability System and that appropriate methods of investigation are provided to them, without impediment.
5. The Committee shall guide and supervise the activities of the Internal Audit Area. For such purpose, it shall approve an annual plan, which must be submitted by the director of the Internal Audit Area, and shall follow up on the recommendations of the Committee.

As an integral part of the annual plan, the Committee shall approve the budget of the Internal Audit Area and shall forward it to the chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, who shall submit it to this body for acknowledgement thereby.

The Committee shall verify that such plan has taken into account the principal financial and non-financial risk areas of the businesses, and that the responsibilities thereof have been clearly identified and determined for proper coordination with any other assurance functions, like the risk management and control, financial information control, compliance and external audit units. Furthermore, apart from identifying the audit objectives and the work to be performed, the approval by the Committee of the annual internal audit plan must include approval of the resources necessary for the implementation thereof, both human (internal and external) and financial and technological.

6. The Committee shall monitor the annual plan of the Internal Audit Area to verify at least the following:
 - a. That the principal risk areas of the businesses identified in the plan are properly covered in practice. This shall include the supervision of internal controls on the method for calculating alternative return measures that the Company uses in its periodic reports.
 - b. That there is appropriate coordination with other assurance functions like risk control and management, as well as with the external auditor.
 - c. That it has the human, financial and technological resources initially approved, including the hiring or use of experts for those audits requiring special qualifications.
 - d. That the director of the Internal Audit Area has effective and direct access to the Committee.
 - e. That all significant changes in the plan are properly communicated to the Committee.
 - f. That the conclusions reached by the Internal Audit Area are appropriate, that the action plans contained in the various reports are being implemented as agreed and within the timetable provided, and that the Committee is timely informed regarding the progress thereof.
 - g. That any differences that may have arisen with the Company's senior management have been resolved, or otherwise have been submitted for the consideration of the Committee.
 - h. That the conclusions of its reports, prepared on the basis of the annual plan or other specific requests that may have been made or approved by the Committee, are submitted with the frequency provided for. Said conclusions must include both the weaknesses or irregularities detected and the action plans for resolving them and monitoring the implementation thereof.
7. The director of the Internal Audit Area shall directly report to the Committee those incidents occurring during the performance of the annual work plan and at the end of each financial year shall submit thereto, for acknowledgement thereby, an activities report that must contain at least a summary of the activities performed and reports issued during the financial year, explaining what work provided for in the annual plan has not been carried or performed without being provided for in the initial plan, as well as an inventory of the weaknesses, recommendations and action plans.
8. In addition to the responsibilities inherent in its role, the Internal Audit Area shall be the customary body for communication between the Committee and the rest of the Company's organisation (without prejudice to the provisions of these Regulations and, if applicable, the Basic Internal Audit Regulations) and shall be responsible for preparing the information requested by the Committee.
9. The Committee, through its chair, may request the presence of the director of the Internal Audit Area during certain portions of the Committee meetings at which aspects that are related to the scope of its powers or duties are discussed, all in accordance with the provisions of article 24 above.

Article 28. Relationship with the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division

1. The Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall assist the Committee in the exercise of the powers thereof relating to the internal control and risk management systems and shall prepare the information requested by the Committee.
2. The appointment and removal of the person responsible for the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall be approved by the Board of Directors at the proposal of the chief executive of the Company, following a report of the Appointments Committee.
3. The Committee shall ensure that the members of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division have access to the documentation and to the staff necessary for the performance of their duties in accordance with the Governance and Sustainability System and that the information required for the performance of their duties is provided to them without any impediment.
4. The Committee shall guide and supervise the activities of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division. For such purpose, it shall approve an annual plan, which must be submitted by the head of said Division, and shall follow up on the recommendations of the Committee.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

As an integral part of the annual plan, the Committee shall approve the budget of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division and shall forward it to the chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, who shall submit it to this body for acknowledgement thereby.

The Committee shall verify that the annual plan of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division defines the risk strategy of the Company and of its Group and the activities that will be performed to: (i) ensure the proper operation of the internal control and risk management systems, and particularly that all risks (financial and non-financial) are properly identified, managed and quantified; and (ii) ensure that these systems properly mitigate the risks within the framework of the risk policies. The Committee shall also verify that the annual plan clearly identifies and defines the responsibilities of the said division for proper coordination with any other management, supervision and risk assurance functions such as the Internal Audit Area and the Management and Control Division.

The Committee's approval of the annual plan of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division must also include approval of the resources necessary for the implementation thereof, both human (internal and external) and financial and technological.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the director of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall manage the operation and the budget of said division under the principles of efficiency in management, and shall be responsible for implementing the relevant measures and action plans and endeavouring to ensure the proper performance of the duties thereof.

5. The Committee shall monitor the annual plan of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division to verify at least the following:
 - a. That there is compliance with the risk strategy of the Company and its Group and that it covers the most significant risks (including reputational, corruption-related and emerging risks).
 - b. That the internal control and risk management systems operate effectively and properly identify, manage, mitigate and quantify the main risks (financial and non-financial) and they are maintained within pre-determined tolerance figures.
 - c. That taking into account the provisions of the General Risk Control and Management Policy, there is proper coordination with other functions vested with powers regarding the management, supervision and assurance of risks, including the Internal Audit Area and the Management and Control Division.
 - d. That it has the human, financial and technological resources initially approved, including the hiring or use of experts for work requiring special qualifications.
 - e. That the director of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division has effective and direct access to the Committee.
 - f. That all significant changes in the annual plan are properly communicated to the Committee.
 - g. That the conclusions reached by the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division are appropriate, that the action plans contained in the various reports are being implemented as agreed and within the timetable provided, and that the Committee is timely informed regarding the progress thereof.
 - h. That the conclusions of its reports, prepared on the basis of the annual plan or other specific requests that may have been made or approved by the Committee, are submitted with the frequency provided for. Said conclusions must include both the weaknesses or irregularities detected and the action plans for resolving them and monitoring the implementation thereof.
6. The Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall perform regular reviews of its annual plan in order to evaluate the conformance thereof to the risk strategy of the Company and its Group and, if appropriate, shall propose to the Committee, for the approval thereof, the changes that it deems suitable.
7. The director of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall directly report to the Committee on the implementation of its budget and on those incidents occurring during the performance of its annual work plan, as well as the results of and follow-up on the recommendations of the Committee, and at the end of each financial year shall submit thereto, for acknowledgement thereby, an activities report that must contain at least a summary of the activities performed and reports issued during the financial year, explaining what work provided for in the annual plan has not been carried out or has been performed without being provided for in the initial plan, as well as an inventory of the weaknesses, recommendations and action plans.
8. In addition to the responsibilities inherent in its role, the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division shall be the customary body for communication between the Committee and the rest of the Company's organisation (without prejudice to the provisions of these Regulations and the Basic Internal Audit Regulations) for handling issues relating to the risk strategy of the Company and its Group, the operation of the internal control and risk management systems and the management, supervision and assurance of the risks of the Company and its Group, and shall be responsible for preparing the information on these issues requested by the Committee.
9. The Committee, through its chair, may request the presence of the director of the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division during certain portions of the Committee meetings at which aspects that are related to the scope of its powers or duties are discussed, all in accordance with the provisions of article 24 above.

Article 29. Relationship with the Auditor

1. The Committee's relations with the Company's auditor shall respect the independence thereof, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.
2. The Committee shall propose to the Board of Directors, for submission of the proposal to the shareholders at a General Shareholders' Meeting, the selection, appointment, re-election and replacement of the Company's auditor. In addition, the Committee shall make a proposal to the Board of Directors regarding the contractual terms under which the auditor should be hired.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.

3. The Committee shall not submit a proposal to the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors shall not submit a proposal to the shareholders at the General Shareholders' Meeting, for appointment of an audit firm as the Company's auditor if it has evidence that such firm is affected by any circumstance of lack of independence, prohibition or disqualification pursuant to the legal provisions governing the audit of accounts, and in any event if the fees that the Company intends to pay it for any and all services are greater than five percent of its total domestic income during the last financial year.
4. The Committee shall regularly receive from the auditor information regarding the audit plan and the results of the implementation thereof, shall follow up on all recommendations proposed by the auditor, and may require its cooperation whenever it deems it necessary.
5. The Committee shall request of the auditor, on an annual basis, a certificate of independence of the firm as a whole and of the team members participating in the process of auditing the annual accounts of the Group, as well as information regarding additional services of any kind provided by the auditors or by persons related thereto pursuant to the provisions of the laws on auditing of accounts. In addition, the auditor shall include in the annual certification that it sends to the Committee a statement in which it reports on compliance with the application of the internal procedures of quality assurance and protection of independence that have been implemented.
6. The Committee must authorise any hiring of the auditor for any non-audit services prior to the approval thereof by the relevant body.
7. The Committee shall receive information on the hiring by any of the companies of the Group of professionals coming from any of the Group's audit firms.

Article 30. Relationship with the Audit Committees of other Companies of the Group

1. The relationships of the Committee with the audit committees of other companies of the Group shall be governed by the provisions of the General Framework for Relations of Coordination and Information among the Audit Committees of Iberdrola, S.A. and its group approved by the Board of Directors, upon a proposal of the Committee.
2. This coordination and information relationship shall be channelled through the chairs of the audit committees of the Company and of the relevant company belonging to the Group, with the purpose of informing the Committee of the matters handled by such committees that might have a potentially significant impact on the Group.
3. The audit committees established at other companies of the Group must have their own regulations defining the principals of conduct and the rules of internal operation thereof, and whose scope, in compliance with the level of guarantees required by the Governance and Sustainability System as well as with the principles of coordination and information that must govern the relationships among the audit committees of companies established at companies of the Group for the proper discharge of their duties, must be in agreement with the contents of these Regulations, without prejudice to any amendments that may be required taking into account the circumstances of each company.
4. Any information from or appearance by any member of management, professional or director of any company belonging to the Group with an audit committee that is requested by the Committee in the performance of its duties shall be processed and carried out through the audit committee of the affected company, whose chair shall report directly to the chair of the Committee.
5. The audit committees established at other companies of the Group shall ensure the independence and effectiveness of their respective internal audit areas.
6. For the performance of the duties assigned to the Committee in these Regulations in connection with the Internal Audit Area, the director of the Internal Audit Area of the Company shall establish the appropriate framework of relations of coordination and information with the internal audit areas of the other companies of the Group.

TITLE VII. POWERS OF THE COMMITTEE, PARTICIPATION AND RIGHTS TO RECEIVE INFORMATION OF THE MEMBERS THEREOF, DUTIES AND EVALUATION OF THE OPERATION THEREOF

Article 31. Powers and Advice

1. The Committee may, through the secretary of the Board of Directors, freely access any information or documents available at the Company relating to the matters that are within the Committee's area of authority and that it deems necessary to perform its duties.
2. The Committee may also seek, at the Company's expense, cooperation or advice from outside professionals, who shall address their reports directly to the chair of the Committee. In such case, the Committee shall ensure that potential conflicts of interest do not prejudice the independence of the outside advice received.

Article 32. Participation and Rights to Receive Information

1. In order to promote a diversity of opinions that enriches the analysis and proposals of the Committee, the chair of the Committee shall ensure that all of the members freely participate in the deliberations, without being affected by internal or third-party pressures, and shall encourage constructive dialogue among them, promoting free expression and a critical attitude.
2. To properly carry out its duties, the chair of the Committee shall promote the establishment of an effective and periodic channel of communication, which shall also involve the other members of the Committee to the extent deemed appropriate, with the management team, with the Internal Audit Area, with the Risk Management and Internal Assurance Division and with the statutory auditor upon the terms provided in title VI of these Regulations.
3. The chair of the Committee shall channel and provide the information and documentation required to the other members of the Committee sufficiently in advance of each meeting so that they can properly analyse it and prepare for the meeting.

Article 33. Duties of Committee Members

1. Committee members must act with independence of judgement and action with respect to the rest of the organisation and perform their work with the utmost diligence and professional competence. In particular, attendance at meetings of the Committee shall be preceded by the sufficient dedication of its members to analyse and evaluate the information received.
2. In exercising their powers, the members of the Committee shall comply with the provisions of these Regulations and applicable law on professional scepticism and critical attitude regarding the conclusions reached by the executive directors and members of senior management of the Company, acknowledging the arguments for and against, and with each of the members, and the Committee as a whole, forming their and its own position.
3. Committee members are subject as such to all of the duties of a director set forth in the Regulations of the Board of Directors, to the extent they are applicable to the responsibilities discharged by the Committee.

Article 34. Evaluation

1. Within the framework of the annual evaluation provided for in the Regulations of the Board of Directors, the Appointments Committee shall coordinate the evaluation of the Committee's performance in order to strengthen the operation thereof and improve planning for the next financial year, for which purpose it shall ask the opinion of its members and of the other directors.
2. In the interest of greater transparency, the Activities Report of the Board of Directors and of the Committees thereof shall state the extent to which the evaluation has caused significant changes in the organisation and procedures of the Committee.

TITLE VIII. COMPLIANCE, DISSEMINATION AND INTERPRETATION

Article 35. Compliance and Dissemination

1. The members of the Committee, as well as the other members of the Board of Directors to the extent they are affected, have the obligation to know and comply with these Regulations, for which purpose the secretary of the Board of Directors shall post them on the directors' website and on the Company's corporate website.
2. In addition, the Committee shall have the obligation to ensure compliance with these Regulations and to adopt appropriate measures for the required dissemination thereof among the rest of the organisation.

Article 36. Interpretation

1. These Regulations shall be interpreted in accordance with law and the Governance and Sustainability System.
2. Any question or dispute regarding the interpretation of these Regulations shall be resolved by the Committee itself, and in the absence of such resolution, by the chair of the Committee, who shall be assisted by such persons, if any, as may be appointed by the Board of Directors for such purpose. The Board of Directors shall be informed of the interpretation and resolution of the questions or disputes that may have arisen.
3. In the absence of a specific rule, the provisions of the Regulations of the Board of Directors regarding the operation of the Board and, in particular, those regarding the call to meetings, granting of a proxy to another director, establishment of a quorum, meetings without prior notice, proceedings at meetings and system for adopting resolutions, casting of votes in writing and without a meeting and approval of the minutes of meetings, shall apply to the Committee to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the nature thereof.
