2. The Regulations seek to achieve greater transparency, efficiency and impetus to the functions of deliberation and decision-making by the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, to guarantee equal treatment of all shareholders in the same situation with respect to information, participation and the exercise of voting rights at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, and particularly to promote the maximum participation of the shareholders and their engagement in the life of the Company.

The current text of these Regulations shall be made available on the Company’s corporate website.

2. The Board of Directors may approve rules of implementation that systematise, adapt and specify the provisions of the Corporate Governance System regarding the General Shareholders’ Meeting and the rights of the shareholders related thereto, within the framework of the corporate interest.
3. The Board of Directors shall also entrust to the secretary thereof the preparation and ongoing update of a management framework to coordinate and facilitate the monitoring of all activities necessary for the planning, preparation, call, holding, and formalisation of the resolutions at each General Shareholders’ Meeting.

3. Regardless of the means used, the request must include the shareholder’s first and last names or company name, with evidence of the shares owned, in order for this information to be checked against the list of shareholders and the number of shares in the shareholders’ name provided by “Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U.” (IBERCLEAR) for the General Shareholders’ Meeting in question. Any items remaining from the promotions or gifts may be used for social welfare purposes.

Article 17. Attendance
1. All holders of at least one voting share may attend the General Shareholders’ Meeting and take part in deliberations thereof, with the right to be heard and to vote.

2. In order to exercise the right to attend, shareholders must cause the shares to be registered in their name in the corresponding book-entry register at least five days prior to the day on which the General Shareholders’ Meeting is to be held.

3. The Company shall verify compliance with this requirement by consulting the data provided for this purpose by “Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U.” (IBERCLEAR) or by another valid means.

Article 18. Other Attendees
1. The members of the Board of Directors must attend the General Shareholders’ Meeting. The absence of any of them shall not affect the validity thereof.

2. The chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting may authorise the meeting to be attended by officers, employees and other persons with an interest in the orderly conduct of corporate matters, as well as by the media, financial analysts and any other person the chair deems appropriate. The shareholders acting at the General Shareholders’ Meeting may revoke such authorisation.

3. Personnel from the Office of the Shareholder and the person performing the duties described in article 27.3 below shall also attend the General Shareholders’ Meeting.
Article 19. Right to Proxy Representation

1. Shareholders may exercise the right to attend personally or through proxy representation by another person, whether or not such person is a shareholder, by complying with the requirements of law and the Corporate Governance System.

2. The proxy may be granted by delivering to the proxy representative the attendance, proxy, and absentee voting card or any other means of verifying the grant of a proxy that is accepted by the Company, or by any of the following means:
   a. Through the financial institutions that are intermediaries, managers and depositaries in which their shares are deposited, in order for said institutions to in turn cause the instructions received to be delivered to the Company.
   b. Through the proxy form available on the Company’s corporate website, using the instantaneous authentication systems implemented by the Company, recognised electronic signature of the shareholder or other type of guarantee that the Company deems proper to ensure the authenticity and identification of the shareholder granting the proxy.
   For these purposes, the use of the personal passwords that the Company has previously delivered to the shareholder by postal or electronic correspondence to the address that the shareholder has communicated to the Company or through any other form determined by the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be a proper assurance.
   c. Advance delivery of the attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or any other means of verifying the grant of a proxy that is accepted by the Company at the premises provided by the Company on the days announced on the Company’s corporate website.
   d. Sending the attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or any other means of verifying the grant of a proxy that is accepted by the Company by postal correspondence addressed to the Company.
   e. By any other means of remote communication that the Board of Directors determines to favour the participation of the largest possible number of shareholders, provided that notice thereof is given on the corporate website at the time of publishing the announcement of the call to meeting, that it provides sufficient guarantees of the authenticity and identification of the shareholder granting the proxy, and, if appropriate, that it duly ensures the security of the electronic communications.

3. A proxy granted by any of the means indicated in the preceding section must be received by the Company before 24:00 on the day immediately prior to the day on which the General Shareholders’ Meeting is held upon first call or upon second call, at the Company.

4. The Board of Directors is authorised to further develop the foregoing provisions by establishing rules, means and procedures adjusted to current techniques in order to organise the grant of proxies by electronic means, in each case in accordance with the rules and regulations issued for such purpose.

Specifically, the Board of Directors may establish rules for the use of personal passwords and other guarantees other than electronic signatures for the granting of proxies by electronic correspondence, reduce the advance period established above for receipt by the Company of proxies granted by postal or electronic correspondence, and allow and authorise the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting and the persons acting by delegation therefrom to accept any absentee votes received after such period, to the extent allowed by the means available.

5. The chairman and the secretary of the Board of Directors or the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting, from the constitution thereof, and the persons acting by delegation from either of them, shall have the broadest powers for verifying the identity of the shareholders and their representatives, verifying the ownership and status of their rights, and recognising the validity of the attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or the instrument evidencing attendance or representation by proxy.

6. A proxy is always revocable. Attendance by the shareholder granting the proxy at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, whether in person or due to having cast an absentee vote on a date subsequent to that of the proxy, shall have the effect of revoking the proxy.

7. A public solicitation for proxies by the Board of Directors or any of its members shall be governed by the provisions of law and by the corresponding resolution of the Board of Directors, if any.

8. A proxy may cover those matters that the law allows to be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting even when not included in the agenda.

9. If the proxy has been validly granted pursuant to law and these Regulations but does not include voting instructions or questions arise as to the intended proxy-holder or the scope of the representation, and unless otherwise indicated by the shareholder, it shall be deemed that: (i) the proxy is granted in favour of the chairman of the Board of Directors; (ii) refers to all of the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting; (iii) contains the instruction to vote favourably on all proposals made by the Board of Directors with respect to the items on the agenda of the call to meeting; and (iv) extends to matters that, although not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, may be dealt with at the General Shareholders’ Meeting in accordance with law, in respect of which the proxy-holder shall vote in the direction the proxy-holder deems most favourable to the interests of the shareholder granting the proxy, within the framework of the corporate interest.

This provision may be further developed by any rules approved by the Board of Directors that systematise, further develop, adapt and specify the provisions of the Corporate Governance System regarding the management of the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

10. Before being appointed, the proxy-holder shall provide detailed information to the shareholder regarding the existence of any conflict of interest. If the conflict is subsequent to the appointment and the shareholder granting the proxy has not been advised of the possible existence of such conflict, the proxy-holder shall immediately inform the shareholder thereof. In both cases, if the proxy-holder has not received new specific voting instructions regarding each of the matters on which the proxy-holder has to vote on behalf of the shareholder, the proxy-holder shall abstain from voting, without prejudice to the provisions of the following section.

11. Unless otherwise expressly indicated by the shareholder, if the proxy-holder is affected by a conflict of interest and has no specific voting instructions, or if the proxy-holder has them but it is deemed preferable that the proxy-holder not exercise the proxy with respect to the items involved in the conflict of interest, the shareholder shall be deemed to have appointed the following persons as proxy-holders for such items, severally and successively, in the event that any of them is in turn affected by a conflict of interest: first, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting, second, the secretary therefor, and finally, the deputy secretary of the Board of Directors, if any. In this latter event, if there are several deputy secretaries, the order to be used shall be the order established at the time of their appointment (first deputy secretary, second deputy secretary, etc.). The proxy representative so designated shall cast the vote in the direction deemed most favourable to the interests of the person represented thereby, within the framework of the corporate interest.

12. A proxy representative may hold the proxy of more than one shareholder without limitation as to the number of shareholders being represented, and exercise the corresponding voting rights pursuant to the provisions of article 40.3 below.

Article 20. Attendance, Proxy and Absentee Voting Cards

13. The Company may issue the attendance, proxy and absentee voting cards for the participation of the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, and also propose to the entities members of “Sociedad de Gestión de los Sistemas de Registro, Compensación y Liquidación de Valores, S.A.U.” (IBERCLEAR) and to the intermediary and management institutions and depositaries in general, the form of such cards as well as the formula that must be recited in order to delegate proxy representation, which, in the absence of specific instructions from the party granting the proxy, may also set forth the way for the proxy-holder to vote with respect to each of the resolutions proposed by the Board of Directors in connection with each item on the agenda of the call to meeting. The attendance, proxy and absentee voting card may also specify the identity of the proxy-holder and the alternate or alternates for the proxy-holder in the event of a conflict of interest, in the absence of express appointment by the shareholder being represented. The Company shall ensure that the cards issued by such institutions are uniform and include a bar code or other system that allows for the reading thereof by electronic or long-distance data transmission means in order to facilitate the computerised calculation of shares represented in person and by proxy at the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

14. The proxy or voting instructions of the shareholders acting through intermediary and management institutions or depositaries may be received by the Company through any valid system or means of long-distance communication, signed by the shareholder or by the institution. The institutions may group together instructions received from shareholders and send them in a block to the Company, indicating the direction of such instructions.

15. If a financial intermediary or management institution or depositary sends to the Company an attendance, proxy and absentee voting card or verifying instrument of a shareholder duly identified in the document and bearing the signature, stamp and/or mechanical impression of the institution, and unless the shareholder expressly indicates otherwise, it shall be deemed that the shareholder has instructed such institution to exercise the proxy or voting right, as applicable, in the direction indicated in such card or instrument evidencing the proxy or vote. If there are questions regarding such instructions, it shall be deemed that the shareholder grants the proxy to the chairman of the Board of Directors with the scope set forth in these Regulations and that the shareholder gives specific instructions to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors in connection with the items on the agenda of the call to meeting.

16. In other respects, the other rules contained in the Corporate Governance System and those established by the Board of Directors in order to further develop such rules shall apply to the proxies and absentee votes referred to in this article.

2. Shareholders representing at least two-thirds of subscribed share capital with voting rights must be in attendance at the first call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting, and shareholders representing at least sixty per cent of such share capital must be in attendance at the second call, in order to adopt resolutions regarding a change in the object of the Company, transformation, total split-off, dissolution of the Company, and the amendment of article 21.2 of the By-Laws.

3. The absence of shareholders occurring once a quorum for the General Shareholders’ Meeting has been established shall not affect the validity of the meeting.

4. If the attendance of shareholders representing a particular minimum percentage of share capital or the consent of specific interested shareholders is required pursuant to law or the Corporate Governance System in order to validly adopt a resolution regarding one or more items on the agenda of the call to meeting, and such percentage is not reached or such shareholders are not present in person or by proxy at the time of formation of the quorum for the General Shareholders’ Meeting, the shareholders thereat shall limit themselves to deliberating on those items on the agenda that do not require such percentage of share capital or the consent of such shareholders.

Article 30. List of Attendees

1. Prior to beginning with the agenda for the meeting, the secretary shall prepare a list of attendees, which shall specify those attending as shareholders and those attending as proxy-holders, as well as the number of their own or other shares with which each one is attending. At the end of the list, there shall be a determination of the number of shareholders present in person or by proxy, as well as the amount of capital they own, with a specification as to which capital corresponds to shareholders with the right to vote. The list of attendees shall include as present those shareholders who have cast absentee votes pursuant to the provisions of the Corporate Governance System.

2. The list of attendees shall be contained in electronic media, the sealed cover of which shall show the appropriate identification procedure signed by the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting with the approval of the chair.

3. If the meeting takes place in different places pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, the list of attendees shall also include the share capital represented in person or by proxy in each room. In such case, absentee votes shall be included in the room where the Presiding Committee is located.

4. The list of attendees shall be attached to the minutes of the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Article 31. Shareholder Presentation Requests. Identification

Shareholders desiring to address the General Shareholders’ Meeting must so request the Office of the Shareholder or to whomever is indicated for such purposes prior to the commencement of the meeting and state for the record their first and last names and, if applicable, the name of the corporate shareholder they represent, as well as the number of shares they own and/or represent.

Article 32. Reports

1. Once the list of attendees has been prepared and they have been informed regarding the publications of the announcement of the call to meeting, there shall be a presentation of any relevant reports by the executive directors or senior officers or persons designated for such purpose by the Board of Directors. In particular, the shareholders shall be informed of the main aspects highlighted in the Annual Corporate Governance Report regarding corporate governance, emphasising the changes that have occurred since the last General Shareholders’ Meeting and any non-compliance with corporate governance recommendations that the Company has described in said report.

2. If the annual accounts have qualifications, the Board of Directors may resolve that the chair of the Audit and Risk Supervision Committee and the Company’s statutory auditor explain them to the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Article 33. Establishment of a Quorum for the General Shareholders’ Meeting

1. Prior to the commencement of the presentation period, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting or the secretary by delegation therefrom, shall read the information contained in the list of attendees, detailing the number of shareholders present in person and by proxy, the number of shares represented in person and by proxy, with an indication of the percentage of share capital that both represent, and the total number of shareholders and shares in attendance at the meeting, with an indication of the share capital that such shares represent. The chair, or if applicable, the secretary, may project the data resulting from the list of attendees onto the screens of the place where the meeting is held instead of reading the data.

2. The chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall then, if appropriate, declare the existence of a proper and sufficient quorum on first or second call, as the case may be, and shall decide if the shareholders can debate and adopt resolutions regarding all matters contained in the agenda or if, on the contrary, debate must be limited to only some of them.

3. If appropriate, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall announce the presence of a notary public at the meeting and shall identify such notary public, taking notice of the request to prepare the minutes of the meeting.

4. If a notary public has been requested to prepare the minutes of the meeting, the notary public shall ask the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting and make clear in the minutes whether there are reservations or objections regarding the statements of the chair of or the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting in connection with the number of shareholders in attendance and the share capital represented in person and by proxy.

Article 34. Shareholder Presentation Period

1. Presentations by the shareholders or their proxy representatives shall occur in the order in which they are called by the secretary. No shareholder or proxy-holder may make a presentation without having been granted the floor or in order to deal with matters that are not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, unless otherwise provided by law.

2. Shareholders or their proxy representatives must make reasonable use of their presentation right with respect to both the duration thereof, which shall be a maximum of five minutes, without prejudice to the chair’s powers to limit or extend such time, as well as the content thereof, which must conform to the provisions of the preceding section and to the respect deserved by the proceedings and the other attendees. If the number of presentations requested or other circumstances so advise, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting may set a maximum period less than that mentioned above, giving due regard in each case to the principles of equal treatment and non-discrimination among the presenting shareholders.

3. At the time of registration, those shareholders or their proxy representatives who so desire may deliver the text of their presentation to the Office of the Shareholder in order to obtain a photocopy and thus facilitate the meeting proceedings and the preparation of the minutes. This shall be required if there is a request for their presentation to be recorded verbatim in the minutes. In this case, the Office of the Shareholder shall deliver the text to the secretary or to the notary public, if any, in order for it to be compared with the shareholder’s presentation.

4. In addition, during the shareholder presentation period, the representative of the Company appointed by the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting may make an organised presentation on those questions or considerations that the shareholders have submitted to the Company through other channels of participation and such other questions as are raised by attendees at the General Shareholders’ Meeting who prefer to ask their questions for delivery to the chair.

Article 35. Right to Receive Information during the General Shareholders’ Meeting

1. During the presentation period, shareholders or their proxy representatives may verbally request information or clarifications that they deem are necessary regarding the matters contained in the agenda of the call to meeting, information accessible to the public that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the holding of the last General Shareholders’ Meeting, and regarding the audit report. They must have previously identified themselves for this purpose in accordance with the provisions of article 31 above.

2. The Company shall provide the information requested pursuant to the preceding section in the form and within the periods provided by law, except as provided by section 4 of article 15 above and without prejudice to the provisions of section 5 thereof.

3. The information or clarifications requested shall be provided by the chair or by any other person designated thereby.

4. If it is not possible to respond to the request for information, clarification or question during the proceedings, the response shall be sent in writing within the next seven days.

5. A violation of the right to receive information provided for in this article shall only entitle the shareholder to demand compliance with the obligation to provide information and the damages caused thereto, but shall not be grounds for challenging the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Article 36. Order of Shareholder Presentations, Requests and Proposals

1. The powers to make presentations and requests for information shall only be exercised once. During the presentation period, the presenting party may make proposals regarding any item on the agenda of the call to meeting, except in those cases in which they should have been available to the shareholders at the registered office at the time of publication of the call to meeting or the supplement to the call to meeting, if any, they are excluded by law, or they breach the rights of other shareholders. They may also propose the adoption of resolutions regarding which, pursuant to law, the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting may deliberate and decide upon without such resolutions appearing on the agenda of the call to meeting.

2. In the exercise of the chair’s powers to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting, and without prejudice to other action that may be taken, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting may:
   a. Extend the time initially allocated to each presenting party, when the chair deems it appropriate.
   b. Decide the order in which answers will be provided and whether such answers will be given following each presentation or collectively and, if appropriate, in summarised form after the last presentation.
   c. End the shareholder presentation period.
   d. Request the presenting parties to clarify issues that have not been understood or that have not been sufficiently explained during the presentation.
   e. Call the presenting parties to order so that they limit their presentation to business properly before the General Shareholders’ Meeting and refrain from making improper statements or exercising their right of presentation in an abusive or obstructionist manner.
   f. Announce to the presenting parties that the time for their presentations will soon be ending so that they may adjust their use of the floor and, when the time granted for their presentation has ended, or if they persist in the conduct described in the preceding subsection, withdraw the floor therefrom.
   g. Deny the floor when the chair believes that a particular matter has been sufficiently debated, is not included in the agenda or hinders the progress of the meeting, as well as reject a reply of the presenting shareholder.

3. The chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall endeavour to maintain order in the room in order to allow the presenting parties to make their presentations without undue interruption. If the chair believes that the presentation or the conduct of an attendee might alter the proper order and normal conduct of the meeting, the chair may ask them to leave the premises and adopt any appropriate measures in order for this provision to be complied with.

4. The chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting shall have the broadest powers to allow, apply the legally appropriate procedures to, or reject the proposals made by the presenting parties during their presentation on any matter included in the agenda of the call to meeting or on those matters that may be debated and decided at the General Shareholders’ Meeting without such matters appearing on the agenda for the meeting, in light of compliance in each case with the requirements of applicable laws and regulations. In voting on the proposals allowed pursuant to this section, the procedure established in letter b) of article 40.2 of these Regulations shall apply, without prejudice to the chair’s ability to decide on the use of other procedures or alternative voting systems.

NOTICE. This document is a translation of a duly approved Spanish-language document, and is provided for informational purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy between the text of this translation and the text of the original Spanish-language document that this translation is intended to reflect, the text of the original Spanish-language document shall prevail.
Article 37. Temporary Suspension

1. In exceptional cases, when there are incidents that temporarily prevent the normal progress of the meeting, the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting may resolve to suspend the session for the time the chair deems appropriate in order to re-establish the conditions needed for the continuation thereof. The chair may adopt such additional measures as the chair deems appropriate to ensure the safety of the attendees and to avoid the repetition of circumstances that might again affect the proper conduct of the meeting.

2. Once the meeting has resumed, if the situation that gave rise to the suspension persists, the chair shall consult with the Presiding Committee in order for the shareholders to approve a continuation of the meeting on the next day. In the event the continuation is not approved, the chair shall immediately adjourn the meeting.

Article 38. Continuation

1. Upon good reason for doing so, the shareholders acting at the General Shareholders’ Meeting may approve a continuation of the meeting over one or more consecutive days, at the proposal of the chair, of the majority of the directors attending the meeting, or of a number of shareholders representing at least twenty-five per cent of the share capital present. The General Shareholders’ Meeting shall be deemed to be a single meeting, and a single set of minutes shall be prepared for all of the sessions.

2. Once the continuation of the General Shareholders’ Meeting has been approved, there shall be no need to repeat compliance with the provisions of law or the Corporate Governance System in subsequent sessions for them to be validly held. The quorum needed to adopt resolutions shall be determined based on the results of the initial list of attendees, even if one or more of the shareholders included therein do not attend subsequent meetings, without prejudice to the provisions of article 41.3.

Title VI. Voting and Adoption of Resolutions

Article 39. Absentee Voting; Powers to Engage in Proxy-Granting and Absentee Voting

1. Shareholders may cast their absentee vote regarding proposals relating to the items included in the agenda of the call to meeting by the means indicated in section 2 of article 19 above. In all such cases, they shall be deemed to be present for purposes of the establishment of a quorum at the General Shareholders’ Meeting.

2. In order to vote by postal correspondence, shareholders must send to the Company the duly completed and signed attendance, proxy and absentee voting card issued in their favour by the corresponding institution, setting forth thereon the direction of their vote, their abstention or their blank vote.

3. Votes through the form available on the corporate website shall be cast using the means referred to in letter b) of article 19.2 above.

4. Votes cast by any of the means set forth in the preceding sections must be received by the Company before 24:00 on the day immediately prior to the day for the holding of the General Shareholders’ Meeting upon first call or second call, as applicable.

5. The absentee voting referred to in this article shall be rendered void:
   a. By subsequent express revocation made by the same means used to cast the vote and within the period established for such voting.
   b. By attendance at the meeting of the shareholder casting the vote.
   c. If the shareholder validly grants a proxy within the established period after the date of casting the absentee vote.

6. If no express instructions are included when casting the absentee vote, or instructions are included only with respect to some of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting, and unless expressly indicated otherwise by the shareholder, it shall be deemed that the absentee vote refers to all of the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Shareholders’ Meeting and that the vote is in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors regarding the items included in the agenda of the call to meeting with respect to which no express instructions are included.

7. As regards proposed resolutions other than those submitted by the Board of Directors or regarding items not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, the shareholder casting an absentee vote may grant proxy representation through any of the means contemplated in these Regulations, in which case the rules established for such purpose shall apply to the proxy, which shall be deemed granted to the chairman of the Board of Directors unless expressly indicated otherwise by the shareholder.

8. The Board of Directors is authorised to develop the appropriate rules, means and procedures to organise the casting of votes and the grant of proxies by electronic means.

Specifically, the Board of Directors may establish rules for the use of personal passwords and other guarantees other than electronic signatures and the instantaneous authentication system for granting proxies and casting votes electronically or by other valid means of long-distance communication. It may also reduce the advance period established in section 4 above for receipt by the Company of absentee votes and proxies granted by postal or electronic correspondence, and accept, and authorise the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting and the persons acting by delegation therefrom to accept, absentee votes and proxies received after such period, to the extent permitted by the means available.

The Board of Directors is also authorised to further develop the procedures for granting proxies and for absentee voting in general, including the rules of priority and conflict applicable thereto. The implementing rules adopted by the Board of Directors under the provisions of this section shall be published on the Company’s corporate website.

The chairman and the secretary of the Board of Directors or the chair of and the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting, from the constitution thereof, and the persons acting by delegation therefrom, shall have the broadest powers to verify the identity of the shareholders and their representatives; check the legitimacy of the exercise of the rights of attendan-
Article 40. Voting on Proposed Resolutions

9. Once the shareholder presentations have ended and responses have been given to requests for information pursuant to the provisions of these Regulations, the proposed resolutions regarding matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting and any others that, pursuant to law, may be submitted to a vote even though not appearing thereon, including any proposals made by the shareholders during the meeting that are appropriate under the law and the Corporate Governance System, shall be submitted to a vote. The Board of Directors shall make separate proposals for resolutions in connection with matters that are substantially independent of one another. In any event, the following must be voted on separately, even if appearing within the same item on the agenda: (i) the appointment, ratification, re-election or removal of each director, (ii) in the amendment of the By-Laws, that of each article or autonomous group of articles, and (iii) those matters for which this is provided in the Corporate Governance System. The adoption of resolutions shall proceed following the agenda set forth in the call to meeting. Resolutions proposed by the Board of Directors shall be first submitted to a vote and then, if appropriate, resolutions proposed by other proponents and those relating to matters that the shareholders at the General Shareholders’ Meeting can decide upon without appearing on the agenda shall be voted, with the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting deciding upon the order in which they shall be submitted to a vote. Unless the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting decides to proceed otherwise, once a proposed resolution has been adopted, all others relating to the same matter and that are incompatible therewith shall be withdrawn and therefore not be voted upon.

10. As a general rule, and without prejudice to the powers of the chair of the General Shareholders’ Meeting to use other procedures and alternative systems, for purposes of voting on the proposed resolutions, the direction of the votes of the shareholders shall be determined as follows:

a. In the case of proposed resolutions relating to matters included in the agenda of the call to meeting, votes corresponding to all shares present in person and by proxy, less the votes corresponding to: shares whose holders or representatives state that they vote against, in blank or abstain, stating so for the record to the notary public or the assistants thereto (or, in the absence thereof, to the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting) for note thereof to be taken in the minutes; shares whose holders have voted against, in blank, or have expressly stated that they abstain through the means of communication referred to in these Regulations; and shares whose holders or representatives have left the meeting prior to the voting on the proposed resolution in question and have recorded their withdrawal with the notary public or assistants thereto (or, in the absence thereof, with the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting), shall be deemed votes in favour.

b. In the case of proposed resolutions relating to matters not included in the agenda of the call to meeting, votes corresponding to all shares present in person and by proxy, less the votes corresponding to: shares whose holders or representatives state that they vote in favour, in blank or abstain, by communicating or expressing their vote or abstention to the notary public (or, in the absence thereof, the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting) or the assistants thereto, for note thereof to be taken in the minutes; shares whose holders have voted in favour, in blank, or have expressly stated that they abstain through the means of communication referred to in these Regulations; and shares whose holders or representatives have left the meeting prior to the voting on the proposed resolution in question and have had the notary public or assistants thereto (or, in the absence thereof, the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting) record their withdrawal from the meeting, shall be deemed to be votes against.

3. If a proxy-holder represents several shareholders, the proxy-holder may cast votes in different directions based on the instructions given by each shareholder.

4. Furthermore, so long as the required guarantees of transparency and certainty are provided in the opinion of the Board of Directors, a vote may be divided in order for financial intermediaries who are recorded as having shareholder status but act for the account of different clients to be able to divide their votes and cast them in different directions in accordance with the instructions given by such clients.

Article 41. Approval of Resolutions and Announcement of Voting Results

1. The shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting shall adopt resolutions with the majorities required by law or the By-Laws. Each voting share, whether represented in person or by proxy at the General Shareholders’ Meeting, shall grant the holder the right to one vote, without prejudice to the limitations on the maximum number of votes that may be cast by a shareholder, the conflicts of interest provided for in article 28 of the By-Laws, other instances in which the By-Laws provide for the suspension of voting rights, or the restrictions established by law.

2. Except in cases in which the law or the By-Laws require a greater majority, the shareholders acting at a General Shareholders’ Meeting shall adopt resolutions by simple majority of the shareholders present in person or by proxy, with a resolution being deemed adopted when it receives more votes in favour than against.

For purposes of determining the number of shares upon which the majority needed to adopt the various resolutions shall be calculated, all shares appearing on the list of attendees shall be deemed to be in attendance, present or represented at the meeting, less: shares whose owners or representatives have left the meeting prior to the voting on the proposed resolution in question and have recorded their withdrawal with the notary public or assistants thereto (or, in the absence thereof, with the secretary for the General Shareholders’ Meeting); and shares which, by application of the provisions of law or the By-Laws, are totally or partially deprived of the right to vote in general, or on the particular resolution in question, or shares in respect of which the exercise of the right to vote has been suspended for the holders thereof.
