

2.2 Value Chain

Generation of electricity and green hydrogen

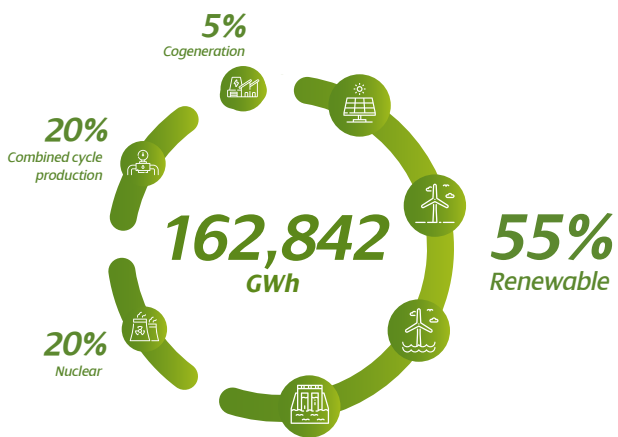

Transmission and distribution

Construction, operation and maintenance of generating plants, and purchase/sale of energy on wholesale markets.

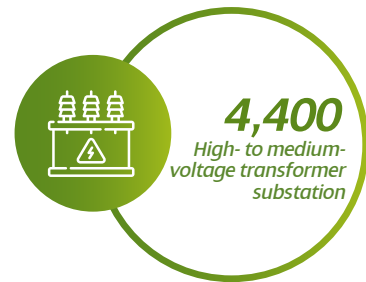

Construction, operation and maintenance of electrical lines, substations, transformer centres and other infrastructure, to bring electrical power from production centres to the end user.

Electricity production¹

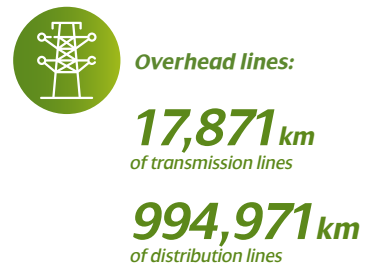

(1) of 2020 net output

Electric networks²

(2) At 31 December 2020

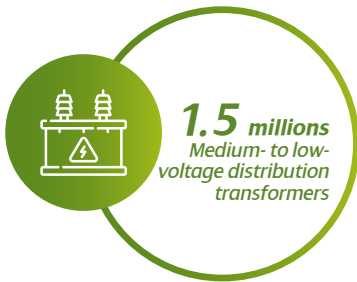

of electric power

Retail sale of electricity and gas

Supply to end users of electricity, gas, products and complementary services.

Consumers

Underground lines

1,234km
of transmission lines

192,707km
of distribution lines

